William Brewer's Will. In the name of God amen I William Brewer of the County of Northampton and State of North Carolina being weak in body but of sound and perfect mind and memory as you may say this considering the uncertainty of this mortal life and being of sound mind and memory I beseech Almighty God for the same to make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following that is to say first, I desire that I desire that all my just debts should be paid, for which I set aside my half of the will and all the land I own on both sides of the creek up to the upper end of each line, if that should fail any part of the property that the family should please to dispose of. I bind to Solomon Brewer his Beeson hand running Shadrack Grant's line and down the white pine branch to the sea.

no timber to be cut except for the improvement of the place after five years of his settling on it. I give it to him and his heirs forever. The land wherein I live I leave for the use of the family as long as they remain single after their marriage or removal I give the whole of the land to Solomon if he is alive, but he to be dead to the surviving part of the family. I give to my beloved wife Betty forever. Betty and her increase I give to Tempery Grant, Betsy Brewer, Nancy Bowes and Peggy Brewer and their heirs forever. Tis my desire that my beloved wife should have full use of the land wherein I live during her life. I give to Solomon his choice of horses and the flower cult. Respecting my Summer tract of land after as much of it is sold as will pay all that I am bound as security for William Sikes deed if there should be any balance I give it to Martha Sikes and Bryant Sikes orphans of William Sikes to them and their heirs forever. I appoint William Grant and my wife Mary Brewer my whole and sole administrators, signed and sealed and delivered in the presence of us this first of July 1816.
