

that my wife Lucy A. Turner to have every species of property of which I may be possessed to have so long as she may live, but should she die without issue it is my wish that the following negroes to belong to Catherine Trivant (wid) Nancy Dorcas and her issue: And Abram and Moses to John B. Turner. The balance of my estate not disposed of otherwise to go to any person my wife may think proper. — I leave Col. Janus Trivant to settle my matters &c.

May 12th 1825

Richard A. Turner

Northampton County 21st September Court 1825 — This last will and Testament of Richard A. Turner died was exhibited in open Court and proved in the following manner to wit: Edmund Turner Allen Dobberry and Littleberry Mason made oath from their know ledge of the hand writing of Richard A. Turner died they believe ~~it~~ ^{it} to be the true and proper hand writing of the said Testator, and also by the oath of Edmund Turner aforesaid that the said will was found among the valuable papers of the said deceased. The Executor in said will named refused to qualify whereupon on motion Administration with the will annexed was granted Edmund Turner who entered into bond in the penalty of him-by thousand Dollars with Littleberry Mason and Thomas Branch securities Ordered by the Court that aforesaid will and Probate be recorded

Wm. Harrison

Henry Crew's will noncupative. — Northampton County N. Carolina May 17th 1825. Personally came before us William A. Styles and William Moody Justices of the Peace in and for said County Simon Harris and James Lewis and made oath that Henry Crew died on the 9th Inst while in his sound mind and perfect senses as called on the said Simon Harris and James Lewis to take notice that his will and desire was, that his brother Jacob Crew should sell all his Estate both real and personal and take his children and carry them to the State of Ohio, and pay himself

for

for the trouble and do the best he can for them

Sworn to before us the above written Day and date — Signs William A. Styles

Northampton County September Court 1825. This instrument of writing purporting to be the noncupative will of Henry Crew died was exhibited in open Court and Simon Harris and James Lewis made oath to the facts therein stated whereupon Jacob Crew in said will named qualified as the Executor thereof agreeable to law. Ordered to be notified and recorded.
Wm. Harrison

Cornelius Hayes's will. — In the name of God amen I Cornelius Hayes of Northampton County and State of North Carolina being of sound mind and perfect memory thanks be ^{given} unto God: Calling unto mind the mortality of my body and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die do make and ordain this my last will and Testament that is to say Principally and first of all I give and recommend my Soul into the hands of Almighty God that gave it and my body I recommend to the earth to be buried in decent Christian burial at the discretion of my Executors in ^{nothing} but at the general instruction I shall receive the same again by the Almighty power of God. — And as touching such worldly estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me in this life I give devise and dispose of the same in the following manner and form 1st. — I give and bequeath unto my well beloved Sister Dorothy Sault daughter of Henry Sault all of my right and title of negro boy Miles. This I make and ordain my last will and Testament Given under my hand and seal this twenty first of July in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty five

Signs Sealed Published and delivered by the said Cornelius Hayes as his last will and Testament in the presence of us who were present at the time of signing — Witness

Charlton G. Jeter
William G. Jeter

Cornelius Hayes