

Miss Collier's Will. In the name of God Amen. I Sops Collier of the County of Northampton and State of North Carolina being of sound mind and memory blessed be God, do this first day of January in the year of our Lord 1814 do make and publish this my last Will & Testament in manner following that is to say-

Item I send unto my beloved wife Mary Collier all my property both real and personal during her natural life & after her death it is my will and desire that Elizabeth Collier should have one bed & furniture and one year's schooling, to her and her heirs forever.

Item It is my will & desire that after the death of my wife all the property that I have lent her except the bed & furniture given to Elizabeth Collier should be equally divided between my three sons Sops Joseph and Sil & them and their heirs forever.

Item It is my will and desire that my son Sops Collier should pay unto my son Joseph seven dollars out of the property I have given him, also it is my will and desire that my son Sil Collier should pay to my son Joseph Collier two dollars as I have given them to that amount more than Joseph. And I hereby make and declare my beloved wife Mary Collier executrix of this my last and Testament in writing whereof I the said Sops Collier have to this my last Will and Testament set my hand & seal this day & year above written - Signed, sealed, published, declared, by the said Sops Collier (read) Sops Collier the Testator as his last Will & Testament in the presence of us, who were present at the time of signing & sealing thereof Rayton Maughon, Micajah Conner, Simon Harris.

Northampton March 1st 1814 This last Will & Testament of Sops Collier dec'd was exhibited in open Court and proved by the oaths of Rayton Maughon & Simon Harris subscribing witnesses thereto and at June Court 1814 Mary Collier the Executrix therein named came into Court & was qualified - Ordered to be certified and recorded - Test. S. Harris J. C.

James Horeca's Will. In the name of Almighty God Amen. I James Horeca of the County of Northampton in the State of North Carolina deeply impressed with the thoughts of the uncertainty of life, have made this my last Will and Testament. I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Mary Horeca one of a new and one riding chair two feather beds and furniture and one negro girl Elyse to her and her heirs forever. I give also to my beloved daughter Mary Horeca one feather bed & furniture and eight dollars to her and her heirs forever. I leave to my beloved son James Horeca one feather bed & furniture one filling bed & one saddle and one coat. I give to my beloved son Thomas Horeca one negro man Caesar to him & his heirs forever. It is my desire that the said negro Caesar may be valued at three hundred dollars and then for my wife Mary, my daughter Mary Scarborough my daughter Mary and my son James each of them to draw out of my estate in proportion to the valuation of said negro Caesar. It is my desire after all my just debts be paid that the residue of my estate real and personal may be sold & equally divided between my dear wife and all my children. The legacy I leave my son James it is my desire that my son Thomas may take it in his hands and dispose of it as he sees fit, and if he should die without an heir to be given by his body that the said legacy may go to my son Thomas: and I do appoint my friend Jacob Liles and Elijah Scarborough my executors to this my last Will & Testament. I do revoke & cancel all Wills by me heretofore made and so by their parents acknowledge this my last Will and Testament written with my own hand and signed this 3^d of January one thousand eight hundred & fourteen. Signed, sealed and acknowledged in presence of James Horeca & Son Liles & Scarborough

Northampton March 6th 1814. This last Will and Testament of James Horeca dec'd was proved in open Court by the oaths of James Horeca & Son Liles subscribing witnesses thereto, whereupon Jacob Liles one of the Executors in said Will named was qualified according to law. Ordered to be certified and recorded - Test. S. Harris J. C.

Winborne Jenkins's Will. In the name of God Amen. I Winborne Jenkins of Northampton County and State of North Carolina being weak in body but of sound mind and memory thanks be to almighty God for the same do this 25th day of February in the year 1814 make and publish this my last Will & Testament in manner following, viz. Item I send unto my beloved wife Susanna Jenkins the land and plantation where I now live known by the name of the Old Manor Plantation, and five negroes viz. Amy, George, Peter, Sam, and Mazar during her natural life and after her death the five negroes as above named to be equally divided among all my children to them and their heirs forever. Item I give and bequeath unto my daughter Elizabeth Tuttle wife of David

I give and bequeath unto my son Jacob, Rose, Ruben, Green and Hardy one bed of furniture one chest two cows & calves to her and her heirs forever. - I then I give and bequeath unto my daughter Sarah Jenkins and Polly Jenkins all that tract of land lying on Panther Swamp known by the tract that I purchased of Laurence Dickinson and the balance was given by my father - I then I give and bequeath unto my son Charles Jenkins all that tract of land known by the tract that I purchased of John Puttall together with the mill & seat and all the lands belonging also after the death of my beloved wife Susanna Jenkins all that tract of land & plantation whereon I now live with all the land adjoining that I have purchased is to be his & his heirs forever. - I then I give and bequeath unto my son Charles Jenkins seven negroes vizt. Biddy, Vinah, Venus, Beck, Solomon, Isaac and Abram one bed of furniture one chest and two cows & calves to him and his heirs forever. - I then I give and bequeath unto my daughter Milley Jenkins one hundred & eighty four acres of land known by the name of Dead tract and the following negroes vizt. Hannah, Joe, Jack, Grip, Cherry, Lude, big Lucy, one bed of furniture, & chest, 2 cows & calves to her & her heirs forever. - I then I give and bequeath unto my daughter Elizabeth Puttall wife of David Puttall one negro by the name of Sam. to her & her heirs forever. - I then I give and bequeath unto my daughter Sarah Jenkins one negro by the name of Little Lucy to her & her heirs forever. - I then I give and bequeath unto my daughter Mary Jenkins one negro by the name of Rachael to her and her heirs forever. I then I give and bequeath unto my daughter Emily Jenkins five or six hundred dollars to be raised out of my estate to her & her heirs forever.

Now my will and desire is that all the remaining part of my estate of any kind what ever that will be left after paying my just debts and for settling my estate should remain in the hands of my beloved wife Susanna Jenkins as a loan during her natural life and after her death to be equally divided among all my children to them and their heirs forever. Lastly I nominate and appoint David Puttall and Henry Selamy Jenkins executors to this my last Will & Testament, disavowing all other Wills by me made. -

Andrew Jenkins (seal)

I signed sealed & acknowledged in the presence of us.

Andrew Jones & Northampton Merch Court 1814. Then Dempsey Puttall

This last Will and Testament of Andrew Jenkins decd. was exhibited in open Court and proved by the oath of Dempsey Puttall one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, whereupon David Puttall and Henry D. Jenkins the Executors therein named qualified agreeably to law. - Ordered to be certified & recorded. -

Test. J. Harrison Esq.

Keriah Duprees Will. In the name of God Amen I Keriah Dupree of the County of Northampton and State of South Carolina being weak in body this of sound mind and memory calling to mind the mortality of my body knowing it appointed for all men to die, do make and declare this my last Will & Testament that is to say first I recommend my soul into the hands of Almighty God who gave it, as for my body I commit it to the earth from whence it was taken in sure and certain hope that I shall receive it again at the great and general resurrection by the mighty power of God and as touching such worldly estate as it hath pleased God to bestow on me in this life with I give devise and dispose of the same in the manner following. I give to my daughter Sally all my wearing clothes. I give my grand daughter Elizabeth Gilbert my bed & all that appertains thereto, also one half of all my estate not heretofore given away. I give my grand daughter Mary Gilbert the balance of my estate my wish and desire is that my executor hereafter named shall keep my bed and all that appertains thereto till my grand daughter Keriah Gilbert arrives to lawful age or marries, the balance of my estate given to my two grand daughters to be sold and the money arising therefrom to be paid by my said executor hereafter named till my