

Long my whole and sole executor to my will, given under my hand & seal this 2^d day of July 1816.

Henry Faison Test

Teste, Abraham Hays -

North Carolina N. Hampton County: Superior Court of Law Fall Term 1817.

Henry Faison exor and devisees against Samuel Stancell. Appeal. Came to the will of Henry Faison deceased - This day came the parties by their Attornies and thereupon came a jury of good and lawful men, who being duly sworn and tried, upon their oaths do say the paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Henry Faison decd is the last Will and Testament of the said Henry Faison decd: therefore it is ordered by the court that judgment be had for the plaintiffs according to the finding of the jury - a copy Teste H. B. Lockhart S. C. N. Hampton March Court 1818 The preceeding last will & testament of Henry Faison decd together with the probate thereof was exhibited into court by Frederick Long and ordered to be recorded, and upon motion of the said Frederick Long the executor therein named he was qualified thereto in due form of law -

Teste James C. Harrison Clerk Court

Sally Lapsiter's will. In the name of God Amen I Sally Lapsiter of the County of N. Hampton and State of North Carolina do make and ordain this my last will & testament in manner and form following, to wit: Item 1st after the payment of my just debts I give and bequeath the following legacies, to Enos and Willie Lapsiter each the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars. Item 2^d I give and bequeath unto my daughter Mary Tuttle my riding Chair and harness, and provided she should die before they are worn out I leave them to the daughters of the said Mary to them and their heirs forever. Item 3^d It is my will and devise that all the remainder of my property not heretofore willed away be equally divided between Mary Tuttle wife of Willie Tuttle, Willie Lapsiter, Enos Lapsiter and William Lapsiter to them and their heirs forever. Item 4th I hereby nominate and appoint my son William Lapsiter and my son in law Willie Tuttle whole and sole executors of this my last will and testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 2^d day of October Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventeen. Sally Lapsiter Test
made
Signed and acknowledged in the presence of us and each of us on the day and date above written. W. Gorton N. Magt. Northampton March Court 1818 This last will and testament of Sally Lapsiter decd was exhibited into Court and proved by the oath of Nicholas Magt one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, at the same time Willie Tuttle one of the executors in said will named qualified thereto in due form of law, and William Lapsiter the other executor being premises renounced his right of qualifying as executor, ordered that said will be recorded -

Teste

James C. Harrison Clerk

201

John Whitty's will. I John Whitty of the County of Northampton and State of North Carolina being of sound mind and memory do constitute and make this my last will and testament. I desire that my four negroes be sold by my executor and the money arising therefrom I give and bequeath unto my Aunt Susan Whitty of Brunswick County Virginia to her and her heirs forever and I give and bequeath unto my said Aunt Susan Whitty all the balance of my estate after paying my just debts, and I do hereby appoint William W. Wilkins executor of this my last will and testament in witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twenty first day of October 1817 - John Whitty Test
made
Signed sealed & acknowledged in presence of James Eppis M. W. Wilkins - Northampton March Court 1818 This last will and testament of John Whitty decd was proved in open Court by the oath of William W. Wilkins one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, and at the same time the said William W. Wilkins the executor in said will named qualified thereto according to law ordered that the said will be recorded -

Teste

James C. Harrison Clerk

Clary Deberry's will. In the name of God Amen I Clary Deberry of the County of Northampton and State of North Carolina deeply impressed with the thoughts of the uncertainty of life have made this my last will and testament. Item my devise is for all my just debts to be paid and then the residue of my estate to be equally divided between my beloved son John Deberry my beloved daughter Margaret Ann Deberry and my beloved son Samuel Deberry. I do appoint Jacob Liles my executor to this my last will and testament, I do revoke and cancel all other wills by me heretofore made and do by these presents acknowledge this my last will and testament written and signed this 12th day of December one thousand eight hundred and sixteen - Clary Deberry Test
made
Signed sealed & acknowledged in the presence of Richard Brown A. Deberry - Northampton March Court 1818 This last will and testament of Clary Deberry decd was proved in open Court by the oath of Richard Brown one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, at the same time Jacob Liles the executor in said will named qualified thereto in due form of law - ordered that said will be recorded -

Teste

James C. Harrison Clerk

Ann Roper's will. In the name of God Amen I Ann Roper of the County of Northampton and State of North Carolina being in perfect sound mind blessed be God for the same do make this 10th day of July 1816 this my last will and testament in manner and form following, to wit: Item 1st I give to my daughters Betty Roper and Sally Roper the tract of land I now live on with all my personal estate to be equally divided between them and their heirs forever to be divided by themselves or for them by some three good men to divide for them. Item 2^d I give to my son Thomas Roper two dollars to be paid by my executors hereafter named. Item 3^d