Arthur Boykins Will.

In the name of God Amen. I Arthur Boykin of the County of Northampton and State of North Carolina being sound in mind though weak in body have thought it advisable to make and ordain this my last will and testament revoking all other by me made

It is my will and desire that when I depart this life that my body be entred in a decent and christian like manner and my soul I commit to Almighty God who just gave the same, and as respects my worldly treasure, I now proceed to distribute in the following manner viz

First It is my will and desire that all my just debts be satisfied out of what money I am at present in possession of and what may arise from the sale of the remaining part of my crop of cotton unsold and in case there should not be a sufficient to satisfy such debts, my Executors hereafter appointed shall be at liberty to dispose of such part of my personal estate as they may deem necessary to satisfy the same and no more, and upon such terms as they (my Ex. Executors) shall deem most advisable

Item Second. As I know that after satisfying all my just debts as before named I do leave unto my beloved wife Emily Boykin for and during her natural life, all the real, residue and remainder of my Estate both real and personal of every description kind and parcel whatever for the special purpose of maintaining her and her children, and they shall be at liberty to remain on the premises until of lawful age at her death viz the death of my beloved wife Emily Boykin that the whole of my estate as here shall be equally divided both real and personal between such children of mine or their heirs as shall be in existence or within the limits of the law at the day of my death to them and their heirs forever

Lastly I do hereby constitute and appoint my beloved wife Emily Boykin and son in law Samuel which my whole and sole Executors to this my last will and testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 30th day of December 1836.

Signed Sealed, published and declared by the above testator to be his last will & testament in the presence of us
