Date May 30th 1840 Esq

James H. Wood's Will.

In the name of God Amen. I James H. Wood of the County of Northampton being weak in body but of sound disposing mind and memory as this day make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following - just I leave to my beloved wife Harriet Wood the following land bounded as follows beginning at Thomas E Holloman's corner on the meadow River then running with the line to crossing line thence with that line to Henry S Miller's line thence with the line to the fork of a branch thence down the branch to Bobble old will's lot. thence along a path to the gate of Bobble's field then down the bank which divides Bobble's field and the river field to thence down the river to the beginning containing about three hundred and eighty acres Now I give and bequeath unto my son Augustus H. Wood at the death of his mother the land which I have caused to lie to him and his heirs forever Item I give unto my son James H. Wood the balance of my inheritance land to him and his heirs forever until it should turn out that my wife should be delivered of a son of which she is now pregnant then and in that case my will and desire is that the whole of my inheritance land be equally divided between my son James & now my son Augustus H. Wood and he chose that my wife is now pregnant with provided it should be born and live to arrive at the age of ten years ^{then} will and desire is that the legacy as regards the land to James and Augustus stand as before directed, & if a girl the legacy is not to be effected but stand as directed to James and Augustus to them and their heirs forever in neither event the land to my wife during her life is not to be effected.

Item I give and bequeath unto my son William A. Wood the whole of my interest in and to a tract of land lying in the State of Virginia, Brown County. I also give him all the property both real and personal contained in a deed of conveyance made to me by Leman Wood which is of record in the clerk's office of Northampton subject however to the payment of certain bonds or notes which I hold against the said Leman Wood in the following manner that is to say I wish my wife to provide immediately to collect from said Leman Wood the amount of the bonds which I hold against him and if it should turn out that the full amount cannot be recovered from him to Leman then the property under me and owned by William A. Wood is to be subject to pay the balance of said debt and me I also give to William A. Wood all the debt I hold against him & his heirs forever.

As regards my personal estate I wish it disposed of in the following manner First I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Harriet Wood my carriage horses and carriages horses one bed and furniture, her choice and ample provision for herself and family ever great. my will and desire is that the whole of my negroes except such as I shall direct to be sold or as may be necessary to sell be equally divided between my beloved wife & all my children that may be alive at the time of the execution of this will William A. Wood and William S. Brown accounting for those several to them. my further will and desire is that in the division of my negroes the whole of them be valued by such persons as the County Court may direct and after such valuation is made that my wife be permitted to select from the whole number such negroes as she may prefer to make her portion equal to a child's part and after my wife has made her selection my desire is that my daughter Sally be permitted to make her selection to obtain her portion and to include
