in the name of god Amen I James a Just of the County of northampton and State of northcarolina being weak of body but of sound mind and memory do hereby certify the mortality of man. And that it is appointed for man to die & make known this my last will & testament in witness and force bearing first I recommend the souls of all who gave I am the of a joyful resurrection of the same & to whosoever will be saved I both please god to bless me with & on part of in the following manner, I find I wish my debt to be paid

And I give one hundred to the heirs of willis now Dr. Six Shillings. to them & their heirs forever. Also my right if any in the following request is with Henry and Charles and each to them & their heirs forever.

But I give our separate being weight, & rather like the children can we really, if ever in the future, be drawn to one another our desires & needs cannot stand with a sister truly I want to be ever his sister forever

And I give and bequeath to the heirs of my son Fitz earl D. six shillings to them and their heirs forever

Hand I give and bequeath to the heirs of my son Joseph M. Sasser D.
Six shillings to them and their heirs forever

Item 5 I gave and bequeathed to the heirs of my son, Oligah Mason De.
£10 shillings to them and their heirs for ever.

And I give and bequeath to my daughter Nancy Jones six Shillings and one pence, if any in the following persons it will be as her children to her and her heirs forever.

My will is such full of many things is bound for my better advantage and all to the highest. Because all my lands crops stock of all kinds together with all the property which may be left at my death except my negroes I think to be laid out until my youngest son becomes of lawful age and the money or thing from such sale to be equally divided between my three youngest sons when they become of lawful age namely James Henry Sater and Benjamin Sater and William. And becoms due to them and their heirs for ever. And Lastly I do hereby nominate and appoint giving the my whole and sole power to this my last will and testament.
