

Elizabeth Lockhart's Will. In the name of God amen.

I Elizabeth Lockhart do hereby make and publish this my last will and testament in manner following: Now, it is my will and desire that my son William B. Lockhart, take the following negroes belonging to me, (viz. P.) Inondem, Willie, Stephen, Melius, Amanda and Fanny and her two children with their future increase at valuation to be fixed by persons appointed by him and William B. Gray the trustee herein after appointed, the money to be paid by my said son William to said trustee, when my grand children Cornelius and Erasmus Peterson (they being minors) shall arrive at twenty one years of age, or at such time before as my said son may find it convenient, without on said valuation, as well as on the money herein after mentioned. I give and bequeath to my grand children Cornelius Erasmus and James, P. Peterson the money arising from the valuation of my said negroes, as well as the money due to me by my said son William on his bond bearing date the 21st July 1836 and credited this day for advances made by my said son to me since the date thereof for two hundred and five Dollars and one cent, according to an account settled and signed by me this day, the same last mentioned money to remain in the possession of my said son without interest, to be paid by him to the trustee before named in the same manner as the money for the valuation of the negroes mentioned in the first clause of this will. I hereby constitute and appoint William B. Gray, trustee and testamentary guardian, to my said three grand children, to receive the monies hereby bequeathed to them, and to pay over the same to them whenever my said grand children, Cornelius and Erasmus shall arrive at twenty one years of age, or if my said son William shall think proper to pay any of said monies, sooner, then the said trustee to advance to my said grand children a due proportion of said monies so paid, as their necessities may require or as he may think proper. I give and bequeath to my son William B. Lockhart (without hire) in trust for such one of my grand children to whom negro Fanny may be allotted, my negro man Frank, the husband of said Fanny, to be delivered over by my said son whenever such allotment may be made. I give and bequeath to my grand daughter Anne Eliza Lockhart, daughter of my son William, my chest of drawers, looking glass, trunk and one bed and furniture. I give and bequeath to my son William all the rest and residue of my beds and furniture, and all other articles - but if my said grand sons shall settle, or become located or settle in the neighbourhood, he my said son is to give such of them as do settle as aforesaid, a bed and furniture out of their kindly regards to him my said son. If I have a right to dispose of the negro woman Hannah and her daughter Anne, which were loaned to me by son John Lockhart during my life - I do hereby give and bequeath the said negro woman Hannah to my son William B. Lockhart, and I do hereby give and bequeath the said negro girl Anne and her future increase to my said grand daughter Anne Eliza Lockhart.

It is my will and desire that my son William, pay whatever claims may come against my Estate, which is to be allowed him on his bond before mentioned. I give and bequeath to William B. Gray, the whole of the monies due by my son William, and that arising from the value also of my negroes as aforesaid, in trust, and for the purposes herein before expressed. I give and bequeath to my son William, the negroes mentioned in the first clause of this Will upon the terms therein contained. I nominate and appoint my son William B. Lockhart Executor of this my last will and testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 1st day of January 1839.
