

In the Name of God amen April the 1st 1767. John McKoy in the Province of North Carolina in the County of Orange and Parish of Saint Matthews being very Sick and weak in Body but of Perfect mind and Memory. Thanks be to God, therefore calling unto mind the Mortality of my Body, and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, make I Ordain this my last will and Testament. That is to say Principally and first of all I give and Recommend my Soul into the hands of Almighty God that gives it, and my Body I Recommend to the Earth to be Buried, in a Decent Christian Burial, at the Discretion of my Executors - Nothing Driveth, but at the General Resurrection I shall Receive the same again by the mighty Power of God and as touching such worldly Estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me with in this life, I give devise and Dispose of the same in the following manner and form - I then first of all allow all my Just Dues to be paid by my Executors and Appoint to be my Executors my well beloved the M^r McKoy my Executors to see this my last Will & Testament fulfilled I then Bequeath unto my Obedt Son Francis one Yearling Colt and Saddle and Bridle, and my Cloe and Rife Gun - Lithuiper, I then w^{ill} some Mead and Saddle my Daughter Elizabeth one Cow and Calf, and the Remainder part of my Estate to my Wife and Younger Children to continue together during her Widowhood, and I also Appoint my well beloved Friend Robert Neal, as Guardian over my Wife -

Witnessed in Presence of us
John Armstrong Mathias Hobbins

John McKoy

Orange County N.C.
October 6. 1768

This is to Certify that the Execution of the aforesaid last Will & Testament of John McKoy Deceased was Exhibited in open Court & Proved by the Oath of John Armstrong, a subscribing Witness thereto and was Advised to be Registered.

Test J. Neale. J.

North Carolina
Then came before me William Neal one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of Orange John Carmel and James Culbertson both of Planters and Residen-ters in said County and made Oath. Inwitness that they on the 11th of this Month, heard William Worring on his Death Bed, then Will in Presence of Charles D. Lupton - Worring, to Charles he left a Piece of Gold Value Thirty Shillings, also a Negro Boy which Joseph Worring may keep, or pay his Brother Charles the Sum of - Thirty Pounds, which of Either he pleases, and that to be paid by said Joseph, when it suits without any Process in Law, to be commenced against his Brother Joseph, all the Part of the Estate to Remain in the Possession of Joseph Worring, for his own proper use & his heirs forever. Given under my hand this Twentieth of June One Thousand Seven Hundred Eighty Eight John Carmel
James Culbertson

William Neal

Orange County
Oct. 1st 1768

This is to certify that the aforesaid Will of William Worring, was Exhibited in said Court and duly proved by the Oath of and was Ordered to be Recorded.

Test. J. Marshall.

In the name of God amen I John

McComb

being Weak in body but Sound in Memory knowing that I must part off this body to which I shall again be United, at the Resurrection, thought proper to make this my last Will & Testament, and first I do leave to my beloved wife - Rachel, one third part of the cleared Ground during her Widowhood, or Chastity, and one cow her own choice with her own Hutlocks 2 Sheep and third part of the hogs and third part of Hocks now a growing, and third part of the wheat & one fourth part of the corn now growing in the year 1768 with her spinning Wool & her Clothes and I have her the gray mare with the bridle that she owns and one Tupper calf with two little Weaners and four Spoons and Sundry to build a house where she shall live on the Place with wood & Water, All which I do allow to her two Children John McComb and William McComb at the end of her Widowhood, the land only excepted from the Wages, and I do leave my land to my son Edward, and I do leave Mary one cow and one cow for at their Marriage, and Dances to have one Cow of the rest of the wheat, and the rest of my Ornaments -

I do leave to be equally Divided amongst my six other Children, I give Dorcas, Hannah, Sarah, Margaret, and Elizabeth and I do leave that my Youngest Children shall have their living off the place while the rest of age, and I do appoint my wife Rachel and my son Edward to be my Executors but my wife for to continue no longer than her widowhood and I do leave James Allison to see over my Executors -

Witness Present
John Smith and Elizabeth Smith.

John McComb
Rachel McComb
Mary McComb
James McComb
Edward McComb
Dorcas McComb

Orange County
April 10. 1769

The Execution of the within Will was Read in open Court by the Oath of John Smith a suspecting Evidence thereof and Ordered to be Recorded.

Test. J. Marshall.

In the name of God amen the twentieth Day of March in the year of our Lord one Thousand Seven Hundred and Sixty Nine I Robert Thomas of the County of Orange and province of North Carolina being weak in Body but of a sound Memory being of legal age make and Publish this my last Will & Testament, and have following first of all for all my Sole full Burial and funeral Charges to be discharged within a year after my Decease -