

336
In the name of God amen. the 28th of September in the year of our Lord, one thousand seven hundred & eighty five.
I William McCall of the County of Orange in the State of North Carolina, farmer, being sick and very weak in body, but of perfect mind & memory, thanks be to God for it, and calling to mind the mortality of my body & knowing that it is appointed for all men to die, do make & ordain this my last Will and Testament, that is to say, principally, and first of all,
I give and recommend my Soul to God that gave it, and my Body I commend to the Earth, to be buried in a Christian and decent manner at the direction of my Executors, nothing doubting, but at the general resurrection, it shall receive the same again; by the mighty power of God, and as touching such worldly Estate, wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me in this life, I give, deliver, & dispose of the same in manner and form following, that is to say, in the first place I give and bequeath to Margaret my beloved Wife my whole Estate her lifetime; at her Death, also I give my son William the place he now lives on or paying to the Estate 70 pound and sending my Daughter Eliza on Horse & Saddle, out of what he worth me. the remaining part to be equally divided among my Children; only William to have twenty pounds more than any of the rest, this and no other to be my last Will and Testament, in Witness whereunto I have set my hand and Seal this 28 day of Septm.

Witness, sealed, published, pronounced and so by these

David Fessett

Thos Fessett

End Witnessed

William McCall
mark

Orange County, Nov Term 1785

The Execution of the within last Will and Testament was duly proved in open Court by the oath of Richard Fessett one of the Justices of the Peace for the County of Orange to be recorded

Teste R. Fessett

State of North Carolina

This Indenture made the third day of March, in the year of our Lord, one thousand seven hundred and eighty five, between William McCall, Chairman of the County Court of the County of Orange, and State aforesaid, on behalf of the Court and their Successors, of the one part and Matthew McCall of the other part, Witnesseth, that the said William McCall, in pursuance of an order of the said County Court, made the third day of March, and according to the directions of the act of Assembly in that case made & provided, doth put into, and bind, unto the said Matthew McCall, Thomas Fessett now of the age of ten years, with the said Matthew McCall to live, after the manner of an Apprentice & Servant, until the apprentice shall attain to the age of twenty one years; during all which time the said apprenticed his Master shall faithfully serve, his lawful commands ever when gladly obey:
He shall not at any time absent himself from his said Master Service without leave, but in all things as a good and faithfull Servant, ^{shall} behave towards his said Master.
and the said Matthew McCall, doth covenant, promise and agree, to and with the said William McCall, that he will teach and instruct, or cause to be taught & instructed the said Thomas Fessett, to learn the art of a Blacksmith; and that he will constantly find & provide for the said apprentice during the term aforesaid, sufficient diet, washing, lodging and apparel, fitting for an Apprentice, and also all other things necessary, both in sickness and in health.

In Witness whereof the parties to these presents have interchangeably set their hands, and seals, the day &

341.
year first above written.

Sealed & delivered in presence of
Jⁿ Benton & Co.

W^m McCaulley Seal
Matthew McCaulley Seal

State of North Carolina

This Indenture made the third day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred & eighty five, between End Ray, Esq^r Chairman of the County Court of the County of Orange and State aforesaid on behalf of the Justices of the said County and their Successors of the one part, and Rufell Huntington of the other part, witnesseth that the said End Ray, in pursuance of an order of the said County Court made this day and according to the directions of the act of assembly in that case made and provided, doth put, place and bind unto the said Rufell Huntington, Francis Nash, now of the age of sixteen years, with the said Rufell Huntington to live after the manner of an Apprentice and Servant, untill the said apprentice shall attain to the age of twenty one years, during all which time the said apprentice the master shall faithfully serve, his lawful commands whereof he shall gladly obey, he shall not at any time absent himself from his said Masters service without leave, but in all things as a good and faithful servant shall behave towards his said Master. And the said Rufell Huntington doth Covenant, promise and agree with the said End Ray, that he will teach and instruct or cause to be taught and instructed the said Francis Nash to learn the art and mystery of a weaver and gold smith, and that he will constantly find and provide for the said apprentice during the aforesaid term, sufficient diet, washing, lodging, and apparel fitting for an Apprentice, and also all other things necessary

the in suburbs and in Bath

342.
In Witness whereof the parties to these presents have interchangeably set their hands and seals the day and year first above written sealed and delivered in presence of
Jⁿ Benton & Co.
Richard Gresham Esq^r
Rufell Huntington Seal

State of North Carolina

This Indenture made the third day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred & eighty five, between W^m McCaulley Esq^r Chairman of the County Court of the County of Orange and State aforesaid on behalf of the Justices of the said County and their Successors of the one part, and John Stut Ten of the other part, witnesseth that the said W^m McCaulley Esq^r in pursuance of an order of the said County Court made this day and according to the directions of the act of assembly in that case made and provided doth put, place and bind unto the said John Stut Ten, now of the age of four years, with the said John Stut Ten to live after the manner of an Apprentice and Servant untill he said Apprentice shall attain to the age of twenty one years, during all which time the said apprentice the master shall serve, his lawful commands whereof he shall gladly obey, he shall not at any time absent himself from his said Masters service without leave, but in all things as a good and faithful servant shall behave towards his said Master. And the said John Stut doth Covenant, promise and agree to & with the said William McCaulley that he will teach and instruct or cause to be taught and instructed the said John Stut to learn the art of a Spinster, and that he will constantly find and provide for the said apprentice during the term aforesaid, sufficient