

In the name of God Amen I William Jamison being in a low state of health but of sound mind and memory calling to mind the great uncertainty of this mortal life have made and Ordained this my last Will and Testament as follows (to wit) I bequeath I give and bequeath to my Daughter Rachel Jamison, one Servant Man a chest of Drawers one Bed and furniture and one Cow and calf to her and her heirs forever.

Item I lend to my beloved Wife Rachel Jamison the use of my land and plantation whereon I now live after the use of my Stock of Horses Cattle Sheep and Hogs, the use of my working tools and household furniture except what I have bequeathed to my Daughter Rachel, during her natural life. I give and bequeath to my Son John Jamison after my Wife Rachel Jamison's death the land and plantation that I now live on but the same that I have lent to my beloved Wife Rachel to him and his heirs forever, provided him the said John Jamison gives an Orphan Boy that was bound to me by the name of James Jamison one year's schooling.

Item it is my Will and desire that after the death of my beloved Wife Rachel that the remains of what I have lent her (except) the Land and plantation shall be equally divided between my Children Eliza Jamison, Thomas Jamison, William Jamison, John Jamison, Rachel Jamison, Mary Parks, and Margaret Sinden to them and their heirs forever.

I Nominate and appoint my friend Sterling Harris, to be the Executor of this my last Will and Testament In witness whereof I have published and declared this to be my last will and Testament wherefore I have set my hand and affixed my Seal the 13th Day of March 1792
