

The Life of man being uncertain even in a healthy State and I being at present in a low situation, and not able to settle my worldly matters in so particular a manner as is usual I do hereby bequeath all my Real and personal Estate to my Wife Mary & her three Daughters, that is to say Polly W. Burke Frances Daugherty & Kelly Daugherty, share and share alike, hereby revoking all former Wills and Bequests made, I do appoint my said Wife Mary Executrix and James Gillespie esquire of Duplin County Executor to this my last Will and Testament

Signed, Sealed, declared and acknowledged this Tenth day of October: Anne Dorman
 James Grant
 John Casey

State of North Carolina
 Orange County — August Court 1793

The Execution of the above last Will and Testament of George Doherty deceased was duly proved on open Court by the oath of John Casey one of the subscribing witnesses thereto and was ordered to be Recorded

W. H. H. H.

In the name of God Amen I William Lewis of Orange County and State of North Carolina being sick and weak in body but of perfect sound mind and memory do make this my last Will and Testament, making nul and void all other Will or Wills by me heretofore made. — In my Will and devise is that all my last Estate be paid to my Executors as soon as convenient after my decease, and the Residue of my Estate Real and personal I devise give and bequeath to my Brothers James Howell, Robert Charles Nicholas & my Sister Jane Merceweather Lewis, to be equally divided amongst them, and each of their parts I devise give and bequeath to them their heirs and assigns forever.

I nominate and appoint my Brothers James Howell & Robert Lewis, my whole and sole Executors to this my last Will and Testament In witness whereof I subscribe set my hand and seal this Tenth day of February A. D. 1793.

Signed and acknowledged in the presence of Eliza Ridley
 Charles Lewis
 Tho. Himes

William Lewis

State of North Carolina
 Orange County — August Court 1793 —

The Execution of the above last Will and Testament of William Lewis deceased was duly proved on open Court by the oath of Thomas Himes one of the subscribing witnesses thereto and was ordered to be Recorded

W. H. H. H.