

June Court 1792

In the name of God amen I Gilbert Dauncy of the County of Lancashire Holder of North Lambton do make this my last will and Testament first I give to my wife Anne Dauncy the said Lancashire an I give to my son William Robert Dauncy the best of land he now has an I give to my son Richard Dauncy the best of land he now has an I give to my daughter Elizabeth the best of land he has an I give to my brother Edward Dauncy one acre of land one acre of meadow named Thawes and all his children also one acre of land named Thawes and I give to my son Robert Dauncy one acre of land named Thawes and his children to a boy named Joseph I give to my son Asahel Dauncy one acre meadow and his children and my son and my other four following children I leave to my wife Elizabeth Dauncy all the rest and residue of my estate. Dauncy of his estate life and at his death by will is that of my Marcella Estate to equally divided between my living children and the rest to my wife to be equally divided between my three younger sons or money of them that are then alive my wife keeping an equal sum say Dauncy her Son and his children at the death of my wife and my widow of the Marcella property that to be divided among all my children at that time. I also desire that my son William Dauncy have twenty pounds every year out of the money that is owing to me and all the money that is now in hand and owing to me my will is that my wife have it and pay off any debts also my will is that all my estate lands to be equally divided between my living children and all the rest to be divided from my childrens money my will is now out to be held by it given from under my hand this 2 day of October 1792 Robert Dauncy

James Rogers

Gebert Daugler
Army and later
Gebert Daugler

Brown County

The location of this mill was duly agreed in open court by Robert Lewis & James Baucus, two of the Subscribing Ministers there to and on motion made to be recorded - at the same time James Baucus qualified himself to act with said Robert Lewis, Esq.

June Concert 1792

Be it all men by these presents that of William Butterfield late of Caswell County but at present of the County of Lincoln and State of North Carolina planter have and do by these presents constitute and appoint my trusty friend Benjamin Harrison of Caswell County aforesaid planter my true and lawful attorney for me and in my name and stead and to my use to sue and recover for either in law or in Equity and under whatever of his due knowledge of many debts due and other demands whatsoever which are and shall be due and owing payable and belonging to me or derived from me in any manner of way or means whatsoever by action at law to be tried in the said County of Caswell then before and by a Just & impartial whatever Juicing and Granting unto my said attorney by these presents my full and whole Power Strength & authority in and about the premises to have and take with himself & equitable ways and means in my name for the Recovery thereof and upon the receipt and Recovery of any such debt due in sum of money aforesaid a judgment or other sufficient discharge for me and in my name to make shall and doth and generally afford every other act that thing and thing done or devised in the same whatsoever and further necessary to be done in and about the premises for me and in my name to be executed & performed as fully & employ to all intents and purposes as I might or could do if I personally present or of the matter regard wherein I should make entry than is herein given and attorney one or more under him for the purpose aforesaid to make and constitute and again at pleasure to revoke ratifying attorney and holding for him and effects, all and whatsoever my said attorney or his substitutes shall lawfully do in and about the premises by virtue of these presents in witness whereof I have here unto set my hand and seal in Caswell County

Jane Court 1792 - the eighth day December 1792.

William Butterfield, advocated in the Superior Court before me
Stephen Moore, Esq.

Perry County,

The execution of this power of attorney was duly acknowledged in open Court to have been executed before him as one of the Court and an action allowed to be brought

at the same place

September Court 1792

In the name of God Amen I Edmund Lewis of Perry County in State of North Carolina being weak in body but of sound mind and memory do make and Ordain this as my last will and testament which is as follows I leave to my wife Mary Lewis the plantation and land where and now I dwell during her natural life or otherwise also all my stock and Household Furniture & all other property I now possess after paying all just debts - But after her death or marriage then my will and desire is that my estate shall be equally divided among her seven children William Lewis, Wm Lewis, Warner Lewis Elizabeth Jenkins Lewis, Francis Lewis, Fielden Lewis, Burnet Green Lewis - also I do constitute and appoint Paulin Weston & James Long executors to this my last will and testament Given under my hand this the twenty fourth day of January one thousand seven hundred & ninety two signed & acknowledged before

Roger Miller

John Ellett

John Weston

Perry County
September Court 1792?

Edmund Lewis

The Execution of this will was duly read in open Court by the hands of John Ellett & John Weston two Subscribing Attorneys there and an motion made to be read at the same time Paulin Weston & James Long the executors qualified Test Robt June 66