William Cobb Test

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of William Cobb decd. was produced in open Court and there being no subscribing witness to the same Ollen Cobb testified that after the death of the said William Cobb he found said paper writing among the valuable papers and effects of the decd. and Theophilus J. Atance Ollen Cobb & Reuben Cobb testified that they were well acquainted with the hand writing of the said decd. and that in their opinion the said paper writing and every part thereof together with the signature of the testator was all in his own proper hand writing. Thereupon the Court decided that said paper writing had been duly proved to be the last will and testament of the said William Cobb decd. so made and executed as to pass both real and personal estate. And thereupon Ollen Cobb the person named as exr. in said will gave bond in the sum of $50,000 with Peter E. Kover and Howell Thomas as Sureties.

Bond given and executor qualified in open Court. It was then ordered that said will and this certificate be recorded and filed.
