In the name of God Amen! I George Kinder of the town of Salisbury, (hatter) being very sick but of sound mind & memory, & calling to mind that it is appointed for all men to die, do make this my last will & test, that is to say particularly & first of all I do recommend my soul to the hands of God who gave it, nothing doubting but at the general resurrection I shall rise again by the mighty power of God; my body I give to the earth, to be buried in a decent Christian burial at the discretion of my executors hereafter named & as touching my worldly estate, wherewith it had pleased God to bless me in this life, I give, devise, & dispose of the same in the following manner & form that is to say.

1st I will that my funeral expences, & all my just debts to be paid & if there be not money enough to be raised out of my moveable estate personal property I do authorize my executors to sell part of the lot where I now live on the part that lyes between my shops & Jacob Utzman's Cher Back, & to make good & sufficient title in fee simple to the same: and for this purpose I do hereby delegate to my executors hereinafter named, full power & authority to make the conveyance of that part of my real estate, directed to be sold in as full & simple manner as I myself could convey the same.

2^d I lend to my beloved wife Eve Kinder for & during her widowhood the house in which I now live, with the use of the lot & appurtenances thereunto belonging: — But upon the marriage of the said Eve after my death, or at her decease it is my will & desire that my executors sell the said house & lot & divide the money arising therefrom, equally between the said Eve (if on her marriage) & my two children, that is to say, between John Kinder my son, & a child en ventre sa mere to be born to me after my death: — But if my said wife Eve Kinder should die before her intermarriage then my will & desire is that my said house & lot be sold by me executors hereinafter named, & the money arising from it to be equally divided between my said children, to wit John Kinder & a child en ventre sa mere as aforesaid, & for the purpose of conveying the said house & lot I hereby invest my executors hereafter named full & ample power to make a good & firm deed for the same to be purchased thereof.

3^d I devise, give, & bequeath unto my beloved wife Eve Kinder one bed & furniture over & above her third part of my real estate as aforesaid.

4th I hereby nominate, constitute & appoint my trusty & well beloved friends Peter Browne & Montforth Stokes to be my executors of this my last will & test: hereby annulling, revoking & making void all other wills by me made & publishing this to be my last will & test: & declaring the the same as such: And I do hereby again give & invest my executors herein named full & sufficient power & authority to take my estate into possession, to sell & convey the same away agreeable to this my will, as afore expressed, & to exercise for that purpose all the power, rights & authorities which I can invest them for such purposes, it being my meaning to give them all the authority that can be given for the purpose of conveying real estate.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand & seal, publishing & declaring this to be my last will & test: as aforesaid, done at Salisbury the 9th day of November A.D. 1793.
