

Page 176.

In the name of God Amen! I John Hunter of the County of Rowan being weak of body but of perfect mind & memory thanks be given to God calling to mind the mortality of my body & knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die do make & ordain this my last will & testament that is to say principally & first of all I give & recommend my soul into the hands of God who gave it & my body to the earth to be buried in decent manner, nothing doubting but at the general resurrection to be united again through the mighty power of God And as touching such worldly estate, wherewith it had pleased God to bless me in this life. I dispose of the same in following manner & form.

First I give & bequeath to my loving son Andrew my plantation where I now live on containing one hundred acres my two plough creatures one plough & what belongeth thereto & all my other plantation tools except one ax & mattock that I leave to my loving son Richard also I leave to my son Richard one black & white Bed tick & feathers. I leave to my son Andrew one feather Bed & furniture I leave & bequeath to my loving wife Sarah the remainder of the Bed cloths and all her cloaths one Iron pot & one Iron oven, wheel & three porter plates four spoons & her saddle and my sons Richards house that he now lives in one red cow & three bushels of wheat & nine bushels of Indian corn yearly while she lives on this place & remains my widow and no longer likewise to have half a bushel of glass seed sown yearly during the same also I live my son John five shillings Also I leave my loving daughter Mary Andra five shillings also I leave my loving son Alexander five shillings also to my son James five shillings. The rest of my estate I leave to my son Andrew he paying all just debts & demands this being my last will & test: in witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand & seal the 20 of Novbr: AD 1786.

Page 177.

Signed, sealed, published & pronounced John Hunter (seal) & declared by the sd. J. Hunter as his last will & test in our presence & in power of each other.

Hugh Mc Bride, Jr.

Hugh Mc Bride sen.

Henr Robison.

In the name of God Amen North Carolina County of Rowan the 13. Day of December 1793 I John Ride calling unto mind my mortality & knowing that it is appointed for all men to die do make this my last will & testament, In the first place I recommend my body to the earth to be buried at the discretion of my executors hereafter named, nothing doubting but that I shall revive it again at the general resurrection through the merit of my saviour Jesus Christ.

And touching such worldly goods as God had given me I do dispose of in the following manner & form