

2) I bequeath to my son Henry Huggs my plantation on which I live and also the Negro boy Andy. I desire & empower my Executors to sell a tract of Land adjoining the plantation last mentioned abt one hundred & forty acres two negro wenchs and all my other property not already disposed of; and after paying all my just debts, the remainder to be equally divided among all the children (the negro fellow Jack, in case of the marriage of my wife to be included in the above sale) And whereas there is a probability that my wife may now be pregnant; if so, and that a boy should be born, and arrive of age, he is to divide the plantation with his brother Henry - should it be a girl, to have an equal division of the above mentioned property.
And whereas my father left a Wagon to my brother Henry & me, my will is that the said Wagon continue unsold for the use of both families as at first intended. I do constitute and appoint my brothers Henry & Robert to be my Executors to this my last will and Testament signed with my hand and dated the sixth day of January in the Year
