We the subscribers, being present at the dwelling house of W^m Crawford deceased in his last sickness & the evening before his death (to wit) the 24th day of Febr: A.D: 1807 were particularly called upon & requested to bear witness, that the following, was the nuncupation will of him the said W^m Crawford & the manner in which he desired his property to be disposed of after his death. viz.

1st It is my will & desire & I do bequeath to my wife Polly Crawford my Negroe man Dave & her (my s^r wife) choice of my mares to her & her heirs forever.

2^d It is my will & desire & I do hereby give to my brother John Crawford, all the remainder of my fathers estate, not heretofore paid & delivered me & I do request the executors of said estate to pay & deliver the same to my said brother.

3^d My will & desire is, that my father in law Martin Phipps have the sole & entire direction & ownership of the remainder of my estate, to be managed, conducted & disposed of in such manner as he the said Martin may think proper.

4th It is my will & desire, that my friends John George Phipps & Robert Locke, shall have the care & direction of the education of my son W^m Crawford.

In witness whereof we have caused the said nuncupation will to be reduced to writing & signed by us this 6th day of May A.D 1807.
