

152 Wills 15th July Court 1832.

In the name of God amen.

I David Jackson of Rutherford County being of sound ^{mind &} disposing ~~mind~~ memory, but having arrived at advanced age, and knowing that my future time in this life can be but short and uncertain, have thought it prudent to settle my few worldly affairs, and do therefore make and ordain this instrument to be my last will & testament. — I will that my just debts if any there be be specially and punctually paid which together with my funeral expenses is to be made of the personal property of which I may die possessed. To my wife Margaret Jackson and my three daughters namely Frances Polly and Lindsay I give a part of my land beginning on a White Oak tree Corner on the South side of Bright Creek ascending a Northerly Course to a bend in said Creek, thence up the meanders of the same to the mouth of the Spring branch and up the same to the head thence a West direction to the back line, thence with said line to the stable branch and down said branch to the Creek, thence up said Creek to a red oak David Jackson's farm Corner, thence N. Easterly Course to a Chestnut at the head of a hollow, then with the back line to the beginning. To my two sons Harmon Jackson and Reuben Jackson I give the balance of my land to be equally divided between said boys. One Sorrel mare I give to my wife Margaret Jackson also my stock of hogs and one four year old Stear.

I do hereby nominate and appoint James Macken executor of this my last will and testament.

The above was acknowledged to be the last will & testament of David Jackson signed by him in the presence of us this 12th May 1832.

Attest
Ephraim ^{his} Jackson (Trust)

William Cockran

David ^{his} Jackson Sen. (Test)

153 Wills — September Court 1832

In the name of God, Amen.

I John Wall of the County of Rutherford and State of North Carolina being of sound mind and memory do make and publish this my last will & testament in manner and form as follow. —

First: After all my just debts are paid I give and bequeath unto my wife Lucy Wall all the land and plantation wherein I now live during her natural life or widowhood, together with all the improvements and all the farming utensils belonging to the plantation, and at her death or marriage the above property to descend and equally belong to my two youngest sons John H. Wall and Septah A. Wall and their heirs forever.

I further give and bequeath unto my wife Lucy Wall the household and kitchen furniture one young mare known by the name of Doll, one yearling Colt known by the name of Larry, two Cows and Calves and all my stock of Hogs and Sheep for her to hold and enjoy during her natural life or widowhood provided she furnishes all my children now unmarried at the time they marry or come of age with an equal portion of chattel furniture with that that has been given to those children already married; and after her death or widowhood if any balance of the above property be left, it to be divided equally among my children Hartwell Wall, Rebecca J. Wall, Willis Wall, Kinchen Wall, Angdila Walker, Lucinda Wall, John H. Wall, Septah A. Wall, Lucilla Wall & Chassey Wall.

It is further my will & desire that the following property be sold and the proceeds of such sale applied to the payment of my lawful debts and the use of the family viz: one mare known by the name