of North Carolina being weak in body but of perfect mind and memory thanks be given unto God, Calling unto mind the mortality of my body and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament, that is to say principally and first of all I give and recommend my soul into the hands of Almighty God that gave it, and my body I recommend to the earth to be buried in decent Christian burial at the discretion of my executors, nothing doubting but at the general resurrection I shall receive the same by the Mighty Power of God. And as touching such worldly estate wherewith it has pleased God to bless me in this life, I give devise and dispose of the same in the following manner and form, first - I give and bequeath to Sarah Dumm my dearly beloved wife two negro men, one by the name of Dick and one by the name of London and all my working tools and farming instrument, and household furniture enduring her lifetime and at her death these two negroes Dick and London I also do will and bequeath to my son John Dumm forever these two negroes by the names of Dick & London or their value. I do also will and bequeath to my daughter Sarah Dumm my negro woman named Leal as her property forever. I also will and bequeath to my daughter Betty Upton fifty dollars, I also will and bequeath to my daughter Jane Johnston fifty dollars. I also will and bequeath to my daughter Cathy Hicks fifty dollars. I also will and bequeath to my daughter Abby Carter fifty dollars, I also will and bequeath to my son William Dumm fifty dollars - I also do will and bequeath to my son John Dumm all my household furniture & farming tools as his forever - I further

In the name of God, Amen.

I Robert Cherry of the County of Rockingham and State of North Carolina. Calling to mind the mortality of the human family, and knowing that it is appointed for all men ~~xxx~~ to die, being advanced in life, but of sound mind and memory (thanks be to Almighty God for his mercies) do make and ordain this as my last Will and Testament, 1st and principally I recommend my soul to God who gave it and my body to the earth to be buried at the discretion of my Exors, and as respects those worldly goods which it has pleased the Almighty in his providence to bestow on me I give bequeath and dispose of in the following manner viz First I bequeath unto my beloved wife Sarah the plantation where I now live to be held and enjoyed by her and for her use during her natural life, also all my farming utensils, my household and kitchen furniture of every description to be held and enjoyed as aforesaid by her during life; I further devise that my live stock of all kinds,

Cattle, hogs, & sheep be and remain in like manner for her my said wife's use and benefit during life, then to be disposed of at her death as herein after named; I further give bequeath & dispose of in the following manner to my said beloved wife Sarah, two negroes (twink) Millicent & Fanny and one bed and furniture in her own right, to be disposed of at her discretion when it becomes unto her. I further give and bequeath unto my son James Cherry at his mother's death the plantation whereon I now live (one hundred acres only excepted) also the whole of the personal property reserved for her benefit during life of every description as before stated.
Also I further give unto my son James three negroes namely Candace, Moses and Senah to be held and enjoyed by him in his own right only excepted that my said son James at his mother's death shall pay over unto my daughter Mary Wallace or his legal representative, two Cows and Calves, and one horse creature, the horse to be in value one hundred dollars. I further give and bequeath unto my three grand Children Ethelinda Wallace, Robert Adolphus Wallace and William Alvin Wallace one hundred acres of land adjoining the land I now live on and the lands of Steter and ~~James~~ Johnson to be sold and disposed of at the discretion of my Exors if the same is expedient previous to my said grand Children arriving at full age, otherwise to be and remain in the possession of ~~their Exors~~ at their own disposal. —
