James Cook being sworn as Juror in said suit says that one six part of a bush of Corn was in his possession at the time of the above attachment being laid in his hands which six part was the property of W. Bulluck by Contract (ates one butcher knife) which six part of the Corn that James has is imposed by James Cook & says both took of the same amount to Ninety Eight bushels & one half bushel & twelve quarters last asked by Mr. Spencer, as you know that the Corn mentioned was the property of W. Bulluck at the time the attachment was laid in your hands, Answer, I considered it to be the property of W. Bulluck at that time. Question, by Mr. Spencer did not W. Bulluck left the County before the laying the attachment? Answer, I rather think he had. Q. Mr. Spencer did you not hear or understand that W. Bulluck had sold the above Corn before the time above mentioned to know Mr. Murray? Answer, I did hear that Mrs. W. Murray had purchased the Corn, upon being further Examined, said that he heard that W. Bulluck had not sold the Corn. Q. Mr. Spencer did not William Callahan son of Benjamin your House inform you that Mrs. W. Murray had purchased the above Corn before the laying the attachment? Answer, yes. Cannot say he did, Q. Mr. Spencer was not William Callahan son of Henry at your House gathering the above Corn before the laying the above attachment? Answer, yes. Henry Callahan being sworn as a

Monten Glave & John McCulloch

James Cook being Sworn as Juror in said writ says that one Vice part of a crop of Corn was in his possession at the time of the above attachment being laid in his hands which is part of the property of McCulloch by Contract (also one Butcher knife) which is part of the Corn this Garnishee is informed by James Cook & says that the value amounts to Ninety Eight Bushels & one half bushel & twelve quarters. Asked by Mr. Spencer, do you know that the Corn mentioned was the property of McCulloch at the time the attachment was laid in your hands. Answer, I considered it to be the property of McCulloch at that time. Question, by Mr. Spencer did not McCulloch left the Corn before the laying the attachment. Answer, I rather think he had. Q. Mr. Spencer, did you not hear or understand that McCulloch had sold the above Corn before the time above mentioned to John M. Murry. Answer, I did hear that John M. Murry had purchased the Corn, upon being further examined, said that he heard that McCulloch had not sold the Corn. Q. Mr. Spencer did not Henry Callahan son of Thompson your house inform you that John M. Murry had purchased the above Corn before the laying the attachment. Answer, I cannot say he did. Q. Mr. Spencer was not William Callahan son of Henry at your house gathering the above Corn before the laying the above attachment. Answer, yes. Henry Callahan being sworn as a
