

Wills - September Court 1833.

In the name of God, Amen.

I Thomas Capel of the County of Rutherford and State of North Carolina, being aged & infirm but of sound mind and memory, called to mind the mortality of the body, and remembering that it is appointed unto all men once to die, do make & ordain this my last will and testament. And first I commend my soul to almighty God who gave it, and my body to the earth, to be buried in a decent Christian manner, at the discretion of my executors.

As touching such worldly substance as I am blessed with, I allow all my just and lawful debts and burial expenses to be discharged out of it.

Secondly, I hereby give and bequeath unto my friends and near kinsman Daniel Wilson the whole of my estate both personal & real, & every other thing or things of which I may die possessed; and the said Daniel Wilson shall at my death have & hold a full right & title to all my land and premises according to the deeds now in my possession, and all my other estate by virtue of this my last will and testament.

Lastly, I do hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my said friend Daniel Wilson and Henry M. Kerr the executors of this my last will and testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this fourth day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty six.

Wills. October Court 1833.

In the name of God, Amen.

I Susannah Rucker of the State of North Carolina and County of Rutherford being sick in body, but of sound mind and memory, do ordain and make this my last will & testament. It is my will and desire that my just debts together with a decent burial of my body shall be paid out of my estate, and then I give bequeath to my daughter Sarah the remain of all my property including the land the land where I now live one cow & yearling one sow and pigs, all kitchen & household furniture, and also I request and desire that my beloved son William Rucker will act as guardian so as to see that my daughter Sarah shall be justly dealt by and I make this my last will and testament, revoking & disallowing and doing away all others heretofore made.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 18th December 1833.
