

In the name of God Amen

I Aaron Albarton of the County of Stokes and State of North Carolina being in perfect mind & memory, blessed be God, do this 18th day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred & twenty, make this my last Will & Testament in the manner following

I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Lydia all my household furniture, stock, plantation utensils of every description belonging to me which she well know as there is part belonging to my daughter Elizabeth & Jane on the plantation which I have no claim to nor do not pretend in manner to claim the balance for my wife to hold during her life time excepting those legatee shares which I shall now mention (To wit) I give & bequeath to Charles Christman one dollar and give & bequeath to Rankin Buchanan one dollar and I give and bequeath to Pharoach McKenna one dollar and also I give and bequeath to Tyre Solisby one dollar and my wife may dispose of what property I leave her at her decease as she thinks proper and as to my son Henry Albarton, I have made him a deed to all my land which I consider as his distributive share

To prevent any dispute after my decease respecting the property my two daughters Elizabeth & Jane hold I will proceed to mention some of the most valuable articles but perhaps small may left out just belonging to Elizabeth Albarton one bed and furniture on chest & iron chair one looking-glass & some stuff were too tedious to mention one saddle & belonging to Jane Albarton one bed & furniture one saddle and one looking-glass and three head of cattle and some stuff were And lastly I appoint my son Henry Albarton of the County of Stokes Executor of this my last Will and Testament In writing whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the date & year above written - signed sealed and acknowledged by the testator as his last Will & Testament in the presence of us -

Joshua Cox 3^d Aaron M. Corbin 3^d
Thomas Shipp (Sund)

Stokes County December Term 1820

The execution of the last Will and Testament of Henry Albarton of which the foregoing is a true copy, was duly proven in open court by the oath of Thomas Shipp and ordered to be recorded

W. R. Moore Clk
by L. L. Banner Jr

The last Will & Testament of Rebecca Holden, Spinster of Stokes North Carolina

I give and bequeath the articles mentioned below to the several persons within named To Rebecca Lumbach my bed bedstead & bedfurniture my glass wheel one dining & one gingham frock, my black cloak and my knife & fork To Polly Lumbach one white frock and one white muslin handkerchief To Mary Lumbach one light colored petticoat To Maria Lumbach one dark colored frock and one white petticoat To Henry Holden children, each one handkerchief To Henry Holden one handkerchief To Mary Holden one handkerchief To Jacob Lumbach & Henry Lumbach each one white muslin handkerchief To Henry Holden Joseph Holden like Holden Rebecca Holden & Mary Holden children of George Holden Junior deceased each one good piece wearing apparel To Rebecca Lumbach daughter of Joseph Lumbach my chest of drawers To Rebecca Spack my great many some blue & red plates, each of the sister living in the same room with me one to have a piece of one they were And I hereby constitute and appoint my brother-in-law Joseph Lumbach Executor of this my last will & Testament