In the name of God Amen I Charles McAnnally of this County being at this time in a bad state of health but of sound mind do make this my last will & testament as followeth First I commend my soul to my merciful God that gave it & my remains to be buried there to rest in hopes of a glorious resurrection.
And as for my worldly estate after paying my just debts if any is due I desire that all my property both real and personal be equally divided among my lawful heirs with the following exceptions viz: that what any of my children is owing to me be deducted out of their part and that any land or negroes that I have given or loan to any of them be valued with the rest of my property so that every one may share alike that none may have reason to complain, And if my children is not willing to take any article at the valuation then sell such articles
