I Thomas Suttle of the County of Stokes and State of North Carolina being weak in body though in perfect mind and memory knowing that it was once appointed unto all men to die do make publish and declare this to be my last will and Testament

First and principally of all I recommend my soul into the hands of Almighty God and body to the earth to his burial in decent Christian burial, and as touching such worldly estate as it hath pleased God to bless me with my will and desire is that my funeral expenses and all my just debts that I may be owing at the time of deposition be paid out of my estate as soon as convenient after my decease and as touching the residue of my estate.

First. I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Catherine the tract of land wherein I now live for and during her natural life or widowhood. I further give and bequeath unto my said wife Catherine all of my stock of horses cattle hogs and sheep all my household and kitchen furniture and farming tools together with every other article of property of whatever nature or description that I may die possessed of for and during her natural life or widowhood as above mentioned. It is further my will and desire that my said wife Catherine have the amount of all debts that may be owing to me at the time of my decease for her own use and benefit.

It is also my will and desire that in case my said wife Catherine should marry again that same fit and suitable person should administer on my estate and make sale and sell all the property which may be found belonging to my estate both real and personal on a reasonable credit and the many arising from the sale of this property to be equally divided between all my children. And if at any time my said wife Catherine should judge it necessary to dispose of any of the property which she may have in hands it is my will and desire that she make sale of said property either publicly or privately as she may think proper and apply the proceeds to her use and benefit.
