Henry Shore's will

In the name of God, Amen. I Henry Shore, living in the County of Stokes, and State of North Carolina, being weak in body, but perfect in mind and memory, thanks be given to God, calling to mind the mortality of my body, and knowing that it is appointed for all me once to die, do make and ordain this my last will and Testament that is to say, principally and first of all, I give and recommend my soul into the hands of Almighty God, that gave it, and my Body I recommend to the earth, to be buried in a decent Christian manner at the discretion of my Executors, nothing doubting, but at the general resurrection, I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of God. And as touching such worldly estate wherewith it has pleased God to bless me in this life, I give, devise and dispose of the same in the following manner and form: First all my just debts to be paid ... I also give and bequeath unto my beloved son John Shore, seven hundred dollars, which I have paid for that tract of land wherupon he now lives ... I also give and bequeath to my beloved son Jacob Shore five hundred dollars, to be put to the use of paying for that land wherupon he now lives ... I also give and bequeath to my son Jacob Shore forty four acres of land, to be taken off of the North end of the tract of land wherupon I now live, to run a East and West course, in order to make him and John equal ... I also give and bequeath to my beloved son Thomas Shore the tract of land and plantation, wherupon I now live, and also his bed and furniture, and Chariot and what is in it at this time ...
