The Noncupative Will of John Ridings dec'd

195

The request of John Ridings dec'd respecting his property made to me on the second day of October one thousand eight hundred and twenty eight was that Nancy his wife should keep the house and land (except the portion herein after mentioned to be allotted to Matilda his eldest daughter or soon as she becomes married) so long as she remains my widow with this consideration that each of the remaining children are to have their portions as soon as they respectively are to the age of sixteen & twenty one, one beaver & a grey mare called Splain

Matilda my eldest daughter is to have one hundred acres of land laid off from the lower or south part of my plantation and if she one hundred acres should not include a certain spring that will be situated near it she is to have she is to have sufficient land from the remain due to make a good road to get to it. & enough at the spring to build a house on & room for its conveniency she is to have one bed & bedding one beaver one glass table & a black walnut corner cupboard my male slave to be sold to help pay my debts together with the property out of above & one piece of land and all that can be spared in the house if required my female slave to be returned to Davis Currier of whom I purchased her. Done by the request of John Ridings on the day and date above mentioned
