The Last Will & Testament of me Frederic William Nunn of Saline in Stokes County in the State of North Carolina viz:

It is my will that all my just debts and funeral expenses be duly paid. And as to my worldly estate I find it first of foremost incumbent upon me to see that sacred trust reposed in me by the people known by the name of Madras Fraternity or United Brothers with respect to all the lands which I have sold for them in the State of North Carolina upon which the temporal happiness of thousands of their families as well as of their allies depends; be secured & established in such a manner that the original beneficial intention for this Country - in the place whereof we do find peace - as well as of the many creditors who are in advance may be obtained even after my decease.

And whereas the late Hon^{ble} Earl Granville then proprietor of a certain part of the then Province now State of North Carolina in America by nineteen indentures all dated the 11th day of August 1753 did give grant bargain sell and confirm unto James Hutton of College Street Westminster
