On the death bed & during the last sickness of George Bibbighouse deceased while he was of disposing mind & memory I the Jurat applied to him to write his last will & testament; his answer was, as I have no children it is not necessary Every thing I have, belongs to my wife, & shall belong to her forever. In Witness whereof I have hereunto put my hand the 2^d day of October 1806.
