- 3^d. But in case the Tannery to be carried on by wife & son William should turn out at the end of the year to give no profit so that it could be plainly seen, that it would be a losing business, then my Executors are impowered directed to sell the whole establishment at public sale to the highest bidder on a credit.
- 4th. When the time arrives that my son William T. takes possession of the house & lot & Tannery or in case the house & lot is sold, then my Executors are to provide a suitable house & lot for my wife Anna Maria to live in, which she shall possess as long as she remains my widow & in case she should marry again, the house & lot is to be sold & all the other property of mine which she may be possessed of & the proceeds thereof be divided in three equal shares, one share to my wife Anna Maria, one share to William T. & one share to John Edwin Krause, the expenses of said house to be paid out of my whole estate.
