

The following is the nuncupative will of John Vest bed. late of Stokes County in the State of North Carolina, during his last sickness in his own house in which he had resided for many years, near upon his death in the presence of the witnesses whose names are hereunto subscribed after having sent for two of them (to wit) John Clayton & John Laurence and directing his conversation to them, he made the following request in about the following language (to wit). It is my will & desire that all my property both real & personal remain with my wife Elizabeth Vest during her natural life in order that she may thereby be enabled to raise my younger children & that after her death the whole be equally divided among my children share & share alike. That my sons George & William continue to occupy the plantations on which they now live & work as they have done where I have shown them and that my wife Elizabeth may give to any of my children during her life time such things as she can spare conveniently.

The said John Vest departed this life on the 29th day of March 1833 & that at the time of making the above request he was of sound mind & disposing memory. In witness of all which we have hereunto set our hands this 1st day of April 1833

John Clayton
William Vokes

Feeling myself at the present time very weak in bodily health but still sufficiently sound in mind I have thought proper to make the following dispositions: All property whatsoever which at the time of my decease I may possess I do bequeath by these presents to my beloved wife Luana, Elizabeth Kramack to be divided in equal shares after her death between my two daughters Louisa Charlotte & Christiane Luana & I do also appoint my beloved wife the sole Executrix of this my last will and testament. Given this 31st day of January 1824

Signed sealed & delivered in the presence of
John C. Blum
J. M. Chuman

The Testator not being able to sign these writings declared that the above contents were his true last will.
