and full of body but of course and perfect mind and memory do this first day of September in the year of our Lord our thousand eight hundred and twenty three make and ordain this to be my last will and testament in manner and form following That I bequeath and give unto my dear friend John Fane

First I write that all my last duty & a promise Charge be paid out of my Estate & my Executors Secondly, my will is that John have one hundred Acres of land Surveyed and taken off including the house and plantation where he now lives appraisable to the last will and Testament of his father Michael Harrill.

Now all
 3^d I have now brought into my son Robert Cooper Here our half of my homestead tract of land in the
 -burg the house where he is now living after the sale but have the acre is now off as soon directed to him and he may forever
