

Know all men by these presents that We Jacob Blum, Charles Friedrich Bagge, and Jacob Wohlfahrt, Executors of the last Will and Testament of Traugott Bagge deceased for and in consideration of a release to Charles Friedrich Bagge this day given by Benjamin Samuel Vierling, releasing for him self his heirs Executors and Administrators all manner of claim or claims demand or demands, which he might have claimed challenged & demanded either as Guardian or otherwise to five hundred pounds which Traugott Bagge deceased did bequeath to - Mary Rosina Vierling daughter of the said B. Samuel & grand daughter of the said Traugott.
 We have remised released and for ever quit claimed and by these presents do remise release and for ever quit claim unto the said Benjamin Samuel Vierling his Executors and administrators all action & actions, cause & causes of actions suits quarrels controversies, damages & demands, which as Executors aforesaid we or either of us may claim challenge and demand or might have claimed, challenged or demanded for or by reason of any matter cause or thing whatever & in particular to three hundred & thirty five pound-as which in the said last Will & Testament aforesaid are said to be due & owing unto the Estate of Traugott Bagge deceased, and therein intended to be part of the said five hundred pounds so as above bequeathed to the said - Mary Rosina Vierling.

Whereas by the last Will and Testament of Traugott Bagge deceased, five hundred pounds were bequeathed to my daughter Mary Rosina. Whereas three hundred & thirty³⁵ five pounds is in the said Will charged as in my hands and already paid towards the said five hundred pounds.
 And Charles Friedrich Bagge together with the other Executors of said last Will having engaged to release unto me the said three hundred and thirty five pounds and complete the said five hundred pounds for my said daughter out of the other Estate of Traugott Bagge deceased, and it being reasonable and just, that in case my said daughter should depart this life, before she can lawfully dispose of her Estate, the said three hundred and thirty five pounds to me as above to be released, and out of the other Estate of Traugott Bagge secured to be completed and paid her, should not be liable to be distributed to the nearest kin according to law, but again revert to Charles Friedrich Bagge the principal and residuary legatee of and in the said last Will of Traugott Bagge aforesaid.

Therefore know all men by these presents that I Benjamin Samuel Vierling for my self my heirs Executors and administrators have remised released and for ever quit claimed and by these presents do remise release and for ever quit claim unto the Executors of the last Will and Testament of Traugott Bagge deceased all manner of claim or claims, demand or demands which by any means in law I might have claimed challenged or demanded against them or either of them, for or by reason of any matter cause or thing in the

6) Said last Will infused and sum or sums of money to be paid to my said daughter Mary Rosina, & which in case of her dying before she is twenty one years of age or might have been by me claimed to be distributed to her next of Kin. Now by acknowledging that in case of her dying incapable in Law to dispose of her personal estate so as a beaver to her bequested, or on her not executing that right, the said sum of five hundred pounds shall revert to Charles Frederick Bagge his heirs Executors or administrators free and clear from all manner of demands I my heirs Executors or administrators either as guardians or otherwise might have claimed or challenged and demands by virtue of any matter cause or thing from the beginning of the World to this day.

In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my Hand and seal the thirteenth day of August A.D. one thousand eight hundred
