I am now in strong mind & good senses & this is my last will and testament I want my wife Polly to have all my land & goods & chattels during her life or widowhood but if my wife Polly thinks proper to take more, all my property I want disposed of in the way for usley to have a good cow & calf & a good bed & furniture I want all my land equally divided between my fore sons William Spire, Algon & Richard.
After my wife's decease I want all the property to be equally divided between my fore sons provided my son William coming home and discharges the duty of a good boy with his mother if not I allow him but one dollar with his dinner for ten months Polly & I saw they are not allowed but
