In the name of God amen, I Margaret Barbara Hawn am weak in body but sound in my mind; I therefore make my last Will & Testament, Leaving unto Philip Snyder my land being one hundred acres, with the buildings, for twenty pounds in hard money; but if he should not accept of it, it may be sold to another. Of this money I leave five pounds for the schoolhouse at Friedland. To Johannes Row in Pennsbuch in New England I leave eight pounds. To Jeremiah Elrod one cow. To Michael Hogler one cow.
To Philip Snyder one cow also. Michael Hogler & Philip Green I appoint as my Executors; Michael Hogler to take care of my burying; Out of my outstanding debts namely three pounds owing by Friedrich Miller in hard money and three pounds in hard money owing by Mordica Mundenhall, my funeral expenses are to be paid; What will be over is to go to the society for the propagation of the gospel. To John Lavin I leave one of my hens, one to Christopher Rich, also Peter
