Last Will and Testament of Andrew Polk

State of North Carolina }
Union County. }

I Andrew Polk of Vance Township of the County of Union and State of N.C. being of sound mind and memory but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following. That is to say: First - That my Executor, hereinafter named, shall provide for my body a decent burial out of his share of my property and deeded by a deed and the intent shown by a Bond.

Item 1st I have given to my four sons, viz: J. J. Polk, W. M. Polk, M. A. Polk and A. L. Polk by Deed and otherwise their part of my property.
Item 2nd I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Louisa Polk all my house hold and kitchen furniture of every description for and during the term of her natural life, and at her death it is my will that Alcy M. Thompson my daughter and wife of E. E. Thompson shall have one good bed and sufficient bed clothing to make it comfortable, and the amount of money she is due me for support and money furnished to pay cost in a law suit. And that my daughter Sarah E. Griffin wife of William Griffin shall have all the ballance of said household and kitchen furniture of every description. Lastly I do hereby constitute and appoint my trusty son J. D. Polk my lawful Executor to all intent and purposes to execute this my last will and testament according to the true intent and meaning of the same and every part thereof, hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments by me made heretofore.

In witness whereof I, the said Andrew Polk hereunto set my hand - seal this the 25th day of March, 1892. Andrew Polk Signed sealed, published and declared by the said Andrew Polk to be his last will and testament in the presence of us who at his request and in his presence do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

A paper purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of Andrew Polk, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of Court for said County, by J. D. Polk the executor therein named, and the due execution thereof by the said Andrew Polk is proven before me by the oath and examination of J. P. Ritch and J. D. Ross the subscribing witnesses thereto; who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, each for himself, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper-writing now shown him, purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of Andrew Polk; that the said Andrew Polk in his presence subscribed his name at the end of said paper-writing and which bears date of the 25th day of March 1892, that the said Andrew Polk did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declare the said paper-writing to be his Last Will and Testament, and that he did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will as an attesting witness thereto and at the request and in the presence of the said testator, that at the time the said testator subscribed his name to the said Last Will as aforesaid, and at the time he subscribed his name as a witness thereto, the

 said Andrew Polk was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of the deponent. It is therefore adjudged that the said paper-writing and every part and clause thereof is the Last Will and Testament of Andrew Polk, deceased, and ordered that the same be recorded and that Letters Testamentary be issued to J. J. Polk, the Executor therein named. This 14th day of March, 1893
