Last Will and Testament of James J. M. Heath

State of North Carolina }
Union County }

In the name of God, amen!

I James J. M. Heath do make publish and declare the following as my last will and testament:

My main purpose in making this will is to preserve and perpetuate the family and its influences after my death to provide a comfortable home & support for my beloved wife during her life and to support and educate my minor children.

If my estate shall be more than sufficient to pay my just debts and accomplish the said main purpose, I direct that this residue be equally divided among my children, the children of any of my deceased child, taking the parents share - To this end and for these purposes I give devise and bequeath my whole estate real and personal to my beloved wife Hester C Heath in trust for said purposes with all the powers of a legal owner to sell, buy, exchange, lease, hire or give in her discretion any or all my estate as will in her judgment most likely accomplish this result - If after providing for my debts the balance is more than sufficient for the first and main purposes of this will, then my said wife may advance to any child arriving at his or her majority, or marriage, such portions of my estate as she can spare, provided sufficient is retained to make the shares of the other unportioned children equal to those advanced I nominate and appoint my beloved wife Hester C. Heath Executrix of this my last will hereby revoking all priors will heretofore made by me.

J J M Heath

Signed sealed published & declared as & for his last will by said testator in our presence, we signed the same as witnesses thereto in his presence and in the presence of each other
