

Last Will and Testament of Pleasant Moore

State of North Carolina, }
Union County. }

I, Pleasant Moore of said County and State, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, to-wit:-

First I desire my body decently buried after my death, and all my just debts paid out of my estate.

Second, I devise, and bequeath all my property, both real & personal, to my wife Nancy Moore to have and use during her natural life, and after her death I devise said land and bequeath whatever personal property may be on hand at the death of my said wife, to David Atlas Long, son of Brown Long, during the life time of the said David Atlas Long, and at his death said land to descend and belong to the lawful children of the said David Atlas Long in fee simple.

I hereby revoke any and all other wills by me heretofore made.

In witness whereof I hereto set my hand and seal, this 17th Oct. 1891.

ss. In the Superior Court.
A paper purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of Pleasant

Moore is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of Court for said County, by Nancy Moore a devisee therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Pleasant Moore, is proven by the oath and examination of J H Bivens and C N Simpson the subscribing witnesses thereto; who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper-writing now shown him, purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of Pleasant Moore, that the said Pleasant Moore in his presence subscribed his name at the end of said paper-writing and which bears date of the 17th day of October, 1896; that the said Pleasant Moore did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declare the said paper-writing to be his Last Will and Testament, and that he did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will as an attesting witness thereto and at the request and in the presence of the said testator; that at the time the said testator subscribed his name to the said Last Will as aforesaid, and at the time he subscribed his name as a witness thereto, the said Pleasant Moore was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of the deponent. It is therefore adjudged that the said paper-writing and every part and clause thereof is the Last Will and Testament of Pleasant Moore, deceased, and ordered that the same be recorded and filed. This 19th day of February, 1897.
