

Sarah Richardson last will noncupative

We were present when Mrs. Sarah Richardson in her last illness on Sunday the thirtieth day of September 1847 Gave to E. M. Richardson her pocket Book containing five Dollars & a half of Money & a Note against Hugh B. McCain, & told him to pay her debts out of the Note & Money & then divide the Balance between himself the said E. M. Richardson Mrs P. Richardson, Mason Richardson & George Richardson equally & in paying over to Mason & George Richardson their parts to appropriate the same in the payments of their debts These things she requested us to pay particular attention to & bear witness to what she was saying. This was on the day on which she died but whilst she was in her perfect mind & senses, all of which is hereunto subscribed by us on this the 3rd day of October A.D. 1847,

Signed in presence of us, ^{her} Minney & Richardson
