

the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declares the said paper writing as subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will, as an attesting witness thereto; and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further swears that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Charles W. Phelps was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent; and further this deponent says not.

E. H. Phelps.

H. C. Phelps.

Solemnly sworn and subscribed,
this 19th day of April 1910, before me:

C. W. Tinsboro

Clk. Supr. Court,

North Carolina,

Washington County, } ss. In the Supr. Court,

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the last will and testament of Charles W. Phelps, deceased, but the said will, together with the probate, be recorded and filed.

This 10th day of April, 1910.

C. W. Tinsboro

Clk. Supr. Court,

In the name of God Amen;

I, George Allen of the County of Washington, W. C., do make public this my last will and testament, Item the 1. I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Luvenia R. Allen all the land that I own on the East side of the main road that leads from Plymouth to Bask, it being the land and residence where I now live, to have and to hold during his natural life.

Item the 2. At his death I bequeath to my daughters, Martha E. Ayers, George Anna Respass and Nora C. Harris's children I give them this mother's part I give and bequeath an equal share to my daughter Deborah E. Harrison and the same share to Nellie I. Harris so as to make them his and equal share except Nora C. Harris deceased, her children are to have this mother's part.

Item 3. I give and bequeath to my son, E. R. Allen, for the love and affection that I have for him and other valuable considerations all my right, title and interest in all the land that I own on the West side of the main road that leads from Plymouth to Bask, it being on the same side of the road where E. R. Allen now lives, embracing all the land from Van Swamp bridge that I own on the West side of the main road that leads from Plymouth to Bask. I do not give that part of the land to my wife Luvenia L. Allen during his natural life.

Item 4. I give to my wife, Luvenia L. Allen, all my chattel and personal property to dispose of as she thinks proper.

Given under my hand and seal, this the 23 day of December in the year of Lord nineteen hundred and nine.

Witness,

T. W. Spruill,

Julian Spruill,

George Allen, (Seal)

(over)

the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declares the said paper-writing as subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will, as an attesting witness thereto; and at the request and in the presence of said testator, and this deponent further swears that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Charles W. Phelps was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent; And further this deponent says not,

E. H. Phelps,
H. C. Phelps.

Solemnly sworn and subscribed,
this 19th day of April 1910, before me,

C. W. Anshon,
Clerk Superior Court,

North Carolina,
Washington County, } ss. In the Superior Court,

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper-writing and every part thereof is the last will and testament of Charles W. Phelps, deceased, but the said will, together with the probate, be recorded and filed.

This 19th day of April, 1910,

C. W. Anshon,
Clerk Superior Court,

In the name of God, Amen;

I, George Allen of the County of Washington, N.C., do make public this my last will and testament, Item the 1. I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Luvenia R. Allen all the land that I own on the East side of the main road that leads from Plymouth to Bath, it being the land and residence where I now live, to have and to hold during his natural life.

Item the 2. At his death I bequeath to my daughters, Martha E. Ayer, George Anna Respass and Nora C. Harris's children I give them this mother's part I give and bequeath and equal share to my daughter Deborah E. Harris and the same share to Nellie I. Harris so as to make them his and equal share except Nora C. Harris deceased, her children are to have this mother's part.

Item 3. I give and bequeath to my son, E. R. Allen, for the love and affection that I have for him and other valuable considerations all my right, title and interest in all the land that I own on the West side of the main road that leads from Plymouth to Bath, it being on the same side of the road where E. R. Allen now lives, embracing all the land from Van Swamp bridge that I own on the West side of the main road that leads from Plymouth to Bath. I do not give that part of the land to my wife Luvenia R. Allen during his natural life.

Item 4. I give to my wife, Luvenia R. Allen, all my chattel and personal property to dispose of as she thinks proper.

Given under my hand and seal, this the 23 day of December in the year of Lord Nineteen hundred and nine.

Witness, George Allen, (Seal)
T. H. Spruill,
Julian Spruill,

(over)

State of North Carolina, }
 Washington County, } ss. In the Superior Court,

A paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of George Allen, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by C. R. Allen, one of the deponents therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said George Allen, by the oath and examination of J. H. Spruill and Julian Spruill, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper-writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of George Allen, that the said George Allen, in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper-writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 23^d day of December, 1909.

And this deponent further saith, that the said George Allen, the testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declare the said paper-writing so subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said George Allen was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say not.

J. H. Spruill,
 Julian Spruill,

Solemnly sworn and subscribed,
 This 30th day of April, 1910,
 before me,

C. W. Ansborn,
 Clerk Superior Court.

North Carolina, }
 Washington County, } ss. In the Superior Court,

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper-writing and every part thereof is the last Will and Testament of George Allen, deceased. Let the said Will, together with the probate, be recorded and filed.

This 30th day of April, 1910.

C. W. Ansborn,
 Clerk Superior Court.

North Carolina, Washington County,

I, John Bell, being of sound mind but realizing the uncertainty of my earthly existence do make this my last Will and Testament:

1. I hereby give to my beloved son, Isaiah L. Bell, one piece or parcel of land beginning at Richard Stewards line and thence towards the corner 40 ft and back 60 feet to have and to hold in fee-but if by all the same he shall sell to some of my heirs.

2. The remainder of my real estate I leave to be divided among all of beloved children, reserving a life estate in the same for my beloved wife, Nellie Bell.

3. I hereby leave to my beloved daughters, Hattie A. Lena I. and Captolia R. Bell, my pians and my daughters are to pay to my beloved daughter Mary C. Anderson ($8.00) eight dollars. If my daughter Lena I. Bell pays over to Hattie A. and Captolia R. Bell $20.00 each and eight dollars to my daughter Mary C. Anderson then the pians shall become her property.

4. I give to my beloved wife my horse, cart and buggy if she survives me.

I hereby appoint my beloved son P. H. Bell my executor without bond and if he fails to qualify then my son Geo. H. Bell or my son Isaiah L. Bell.

I hereby make this my last Will and Testament, revoking any and all former