I Nannie Ayers of sound mind do on this day the 18th of July 1887.

Will to my daughter Corinne Davenport the Wife of James C. Davenport. The place that I now live and all that pays it belonging to me, and to my husband William C. Ayers the lot that I own on Water Street in the town of Plymouth State of North Carolina Washington Co and should I leave any heir or heirs by my husband William C. Ayers at his death it is to go to them.

And what I leave in the house that belongs to me can remain as my husband as I have decided with my daughter Corinne I hope that my will may prove satisfactory and will give no trouble as I have done the best I can and the way I think right Nannie Ayers.
