

Washington County, North Carolina.

Recognizing the uncertainty of life I Mrs. Annie M. Blount do hereby make, and constitute this my last will and testament hereby revoking all wills heretofore made by me absolutely.

First, I do bequeath and devise absolutely to my two sons Robert Walker & Harry Latham, all of the money arising from the life insurance policy held by me in the Mutual Life Insurance Co. of N.Y., to be theirs absolutely, said policy being in the sum $1,000.00 $835689.

Second, I devise and bequeath to my two said sons Robert P. Walker & Harry Latham all of the money arising from the note and mortgage held by me against H. A. Blount said note and mortgage being in the face value of $1,000.00, and dated Apr. 13, 1910, said note and mortgage to be theirs absolutely and to be equally divided between them, except in said note there is some small part of same which is the money of my said son Harry Latham which was held by me as guardian for him this amount will be ascertained on final settlement of said guardian's account and is to be first paid to said Harry Latham as ascertained to be due out of said note.

Third, All other property real and personal which I now own or hereafter own shall likewise belong to my two said sons Robert Walker and Harry Latham to be equally divided between them.

I do hereby constitute and appoint my said son Robert P. Walker the executor of this, my last will and testament and revoke all prior will made by me.

Witness my hand and seal this 2nd Nov, 1910.

Annie M. Blount, Seal

Witness to said will.

Signed, published and declared in our presence by Mrs. Annie Blount to be her last will and testament and witnessed by each of us in her presence, who at her request subscribe our names as witnesses to said will in her presence.

A paper purporting to be the last will and testament of Annie M. Blount deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Robert P. Walker, the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Annie M. Blount, by the oath and examination of Minnie P. Phurston & Emma P. Latham the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and swear that she is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown her purporting to be the last will and testament of Annie M. Blount; ~~that~~ the said Annie M. Blount in the presence of this deponent subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 2d day of Nov, 1910.

And this deponent further saith, that the said Annie M. Blount, the testatrix aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid declare the said paper writing as subscribed by her and exhibited to be her last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe her name at the end of said will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testatrix. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testatrix subscribed her name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing her name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Annie M. Blount was of sound mind and memory of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent; and further these deponents say not.

Minnie P. Phurston.

Emma P. Latham,

Specially sworn and subscribed,

North Carolina, Washington County,

I, J. A. Swain of the aforesaid County and State being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence do make and declare this my last will and testament.

First I give and devise to my beloved wife Ida M. Swain my two lots - situated on Sixth Street (and adjoining the Academy Lot) and on which we now live, together with the buildings and improvements thereon during her life time and then to my heirs.

2d. I give and bequeath to my daughter Caroline, one share of stock in The Bank of Cravell.

3d. I give and devise to my daughters, Blanche and Elsie, one lot in the Town of Cravell situated at the corner of Main and Fourth streets - The southeast corner of same.

4th. I give and bequeath to my daughters Blanche, Elsie and Caroline, Five lots - No. 32, 33, 34, 35 & 36 situated on the Cool Spring property near Cravell according to a plat of property formerly owned by Alfred Alexander and surveyed and plotted by Rush & Brodgers which said map or plat is registered in Washington County - Book 56 page 414.

5th. I give and bequeath to my beloved wife the proceeds of my two life Insurance policies, together with what she will receive from the Charitable Brotherhood, and also all my other personal property of which I do possess, excepting the share of Bank stock that I have heretofore disposed of. And direct that she pay out of the proceeds of the Insurance policies all of my just debts. And I hereby appoint her my lawful executor, to execute this my last will and testament.

In witness whereof I the said J. A. Swain do hereunto set my hand and seal this 5th day of June 1911.

J. A. Swain, (and)

Signed, read, published and declared by the said J. A. Swain to be his last will and testament in the presence of us who at his request and in his presence, do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

D. E. Hovvelley,
C. A. Swain.

State of North Carolina,
Washington County, } ss. In the Superior Court.

A paper purporting to be the last will and testament of J. A. Swain, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Ida M. Swain, the executrix therein mentioned, and the two executors thereof by the said J. A. Swain by the oath and examination of D. E. Hovvelley & C. A. Swain, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say and each for himself depose and say, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper-writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of J. A. Swain; that the said J. A. Swain in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper-writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 5th day of June, 1911.

And this deponent further saith, that the said J. A. Swain, the testator aforesaid, died at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declared the said paper-writing so subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said
