

June 1893.
 And the deponent further saith that the said Joseph B. Davenport the testator aforesaid did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declare the said paper writing or subscription by him and exhibited to be his last will and testament and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name as aforesaid declare the said paper writing or subscription by him and exhibited to be his last will and testament and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto and at the request and in the presence of the said testator. And this deponent further saith that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid and at the time of deponent subscribing their names to the said last will as aforesaid as an attesting witness thereto as aforesaid the said Joseph B. Davenport was of usual sound mind and memory of full age to execute a will and was not under any restraint to the knowledge information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say not.

W. J. Muser
 L. B. Davis

Seal
 Seal

Solemnly sworn and subscribed this 20th day of Nov 1893 before me
 Thos J. Mammie
 Clk Supr Court

In the name of God amen, I Mary L. Blount of the County of Washington and State of North Carolina on this the first day of September eighteen hundred and eighty seven now being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make publish and ordain this to be my last will and testament in manner and form following that is to say.

Item 1st

I leave to my beloved husband Joseph W. Blount all my personal and real estate.

Item 2nd

I leave to my cousin James A. Whesson one note which I hold against him of a hundred and forty dollars for the purpose of paying him for any expense which I may have been to him while living with him.

Item 3rd

I leave to my cousin Eva A. Whesson my watch and chain.

Item 4th

I leave to my cousin Laura L. Whesson all my clothes and a white Malgales Counterpane and all my jewelry except one gold fob chain which I leave to her brother Joseph John-Whesson. I do hereby constitute and appoint my beloved husband J. W. Blount my lawful executor with full power and authority to this my last will and testament, Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal on this the day and date above written, signed and sealed by me.
 Mary L. Blount (Seal)

Witness

W. W. White
 C. W. Blount

State of North Carolina } In Superior
 Washington County } Court

A paper writing, purporting to be the last will and testament of Mary L. Blount deceased, is exhibited for probate in open Court by Joseph W. Blount the executor therein named; and it is thereupon proven by the oath and examination of Thos. S. Annistead that W. W. White one of the subscribing witnesses is dead, and it is further proven by the oath and examination of the said Thos. S. Annistead that he is well acquainted with the handwriting of the said W. W. White having often seen him write, and that the name of the said W. W. White subscribed as a witness to the said will, is in the handwriting of the said W. W. White. It is therefore considered by the Court that the said paper writing, and every part thereof, is in the last will and testament of the said Mary L. Blount and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed.
 Thos S. Annistead
 Thos J. Mammie
 Clk Supr Court

Personally appeared Joseph W. Blount the Executor named in said will and first and subscribed to it both subscribed by himself the quality of Executor and better answered to him.
 Thos J. Mammie C. C.
 Thos J. Mammie
 Clk Supr Court

State of North Carolina
Washington County In the Superior Court

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Mary L. Blount deceased, is exhibited before me the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County by Joseph W. Blount the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Mary L. Blount, is proven by the oath and examination of C. W. Blount one of the subscribing witnesses thereto who being duly sworn, doth depose and say that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him purporting to be the last will and testament of Mary L. Blount that the said Mary L. Blount in the presence of this deponent subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing now shown as aforesaid and which bears date of the first day of September 1887. And the Deponent further saith, that the said Mary L. Blount the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by her and exhibited to be her last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of the said testator. And this deponent further saith that at the said time when the said testator subscribed her name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of deponent subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto as aforesaid the said Mary L. Blount was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further this deponent says not

C. W. Blount (Seal)

Personally sworn and subscribed this 8 day of December 1893
before me,

Thos J. Morrison
Clerk Supr Court

North Carolina
Washington County

I Virginia to Baynor of the aforesaid County and State being of sound mind and memory do make and declare this to be my last will and testament.
First, my executor hereinafter named, shall give my body, asset and real estate and pay me my just debt and out of the just monies he receives belonging to my estate.
Second, I give and devise to my beloved husband Samuel W. Baynor the house and lot where we now reside in the town of Plymouth County and State aforesaid on Water Street for his natural life and upon his death then to my youngest brother Asa A. Harrison with this proviso, that should my said husband become helpless through disease or weakness then I desire the said place named in this clause to be sold by my executor and the proceeds applied to the maintenance and support of Samuel W. Baynor.
Third, the lot with store and other houses thereon situated on Water Street in Plymouth said County and State, and now occupied by O. Gordon and Company as a store, I also give and devise to my husband, said Samuel W. Baynor and he him in fee simple forever.
Fourth, the house and lot on Water Street in said town of Plymouth, County and State aforesaid, I give and devise to my said husband Samuel W. Baynor and he him in fee simple forever; whereas Levi J. Fagan now resides, Fifth, the house and lot with all improvements thereon situated at the upper end of Third Street in said town, County and State aforesaid, wherein John Charleston now resides, I give and devise to my beloved Mother, Amelia F. Harrison to have the income and profits of for its use and rent during her natural life, except so much thereof of money coming from it as may be needed to keep this property in repair and the taxes thereon paid; and upon the death of my said Mother Amelia I will and devise that this property, mentioned in this section the profits and income only, shall belong to my said husband Samuel W. Baynor during his natural life and upon his death and my brother Asa A. Harrison surviving him, I give and bequeath to him the premises herein referred to and named in this section to have to him the said Asa A. Harrison and he him in fee simple forever, with this special proviso that he put in good order the family burial ground where my father and Mother are buried in this County, enclose the same with a decent and durable fence and place tombstones to the graves of my said father and Mother and if he fails to do this then it is my Personally appeared Samuel W. Baynor the Executor named in said will and doth swear and subscribe to the foregoing as true for the qualifications of Executor and doth swear to him

Thos J. Morrison C.S.C. [as of this date Virginia to Baynor]
The 23rd day of December 1893.