to the oath prescribed by law for the qualification of executors, and Letters Testamentary were issued to him, this 6th day of January, 1910.

C. D. W. Dusbury, C.C.

North Carolina, Washington County.

I, William H. Cherry of the aforesaid County and State being of sound mind but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament:-

First, my executor hereinafter named, shall give my body a decent burial suitable to the wishes of my friends and relatives and pay all funeral expenses, together with all my just debts out of the first moneys which may come into the hands belonging to my estate.

Second, I give and devise to my beloved wife, Francis A. Cherry, all my property, both real and personal, of all description wheresoever to be found at the time of my death.

Third, I hereby constitute and appoint my beloved wife, Francis A. Cherry, sole executor to execute this, my last will and testament.

In witness whereof I, the said William H. Cherry, do hereunto set my hand and seal this 26 day of January, 1910.

William H. Cherry. (Seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said William H. Cherry to be his last will and testament in the presence of us, who, at his request and in his presence do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto;

Washington County, } ss. In the Superior Court.

A paper purporting to be the last will and testament of William H. Cherry deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Francis A. Cherry, the executrix therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said William H. Cherry by the oath and examination of H. S. Davenport and H. G. Spruill the subscribing witness thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself deposes and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper-writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of William H. Cherry; that the said William H. Cherry, in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper-writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 26th day of Jan'y, 1910.

And this deponent further saith, that the said William H. Cherry, the testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declare the said paper-writing so subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator, And this deponent further saith that at the time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of this deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said William H. Cherry was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further this deponent say not. (over)
