State of North Carolina & Superior Court
Washington County

A paper purporting to be the last will and testament of Freley F. Lohesson deceased is exhibited before me, the undersigned Clerk of the Superior Court for said County by N. A. Lohesson the executor therein mentioned and the due execution thereof by the said Freley F. Lohesson is proven by the oath and examination of L. N. L. Sproull and Job L. Layton the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn doth depose and say and each for himself depose and saith that he is a subscribing witness to the paper purporting now shown him purporting to be the last will and testament of Freley F. Lohesson that the said Freley F. Lohesson in the presence of the deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper purporting now shown as aforesaid and which bears date of the day of 1892.

And the deponent further saith that the said Freley F. Lohesson the testator aforesaid did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declare the paper purporting to be his last will and testament to be his last will and testament and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto and at the request and in the presence of the said testator. And this deponent further saith that at the said time when the testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid and at the time of deponent subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto as aforesaid the said Freley F. Lohesson was of sound mind and memory of full age to execute a will and was not under any restraint to the knowledge information or belief of this deponent and further this deponent say not.
