Signed declared and published by the above named Eliza Lamb as and for her last will and testament in the presence of us who at her request and in her presence have subscribed our names as witnesses thereto

Franklin Spruice
Jesse Norman

Washington County: In the Superior Court
A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Eliza Lamb is exhibited before me the undersigned Clerk Superior Court in and for said County Sallie F. Davis one of the Executors therein named. And it is thereupon proved by the oath and examination of Henry A. Litchfield that Franklin Spruice and Jesse Norman the subscribing witnesses thereto is dead and it is further proved by the oath and examination of the said Henry A. Litchfield that he is well acquainted with the hand writing of the said Franklin Spruice and Jesse Norman having often seen them write. And that the names of the said Franklin Spruice and Jesse Norman subscribed as witnesses to said will is in the proper hand writing of the said Franklin Spruice and Jesse Norman and the said Henry A. Litchfield further states that he believes the signatures of the witnesses to the said paper writing is in the proper hand writing of Franklin Spruice and Jesse Norman. It is therefore considered and adjudged that said paper writing and every part thereof is the last will and testament of said Eliza Lamb dead and the same as such with the Probate thereof be recorded this 6th day of July 1891. Thos J. Mannum C. S. O.

In the name of God. Amen.

I Mollie Chason being of sound mind and memory, but considering the uncertainty of life do make this my last will and testament,

Then I desire my executor hereinafter named to give my body a decent-Christian burial.

I give devise and bequeath all my property real and personal to my children Jesse and Mary. Then I appoint my worthy friend William M. Chason to have the custody and tuition of my infant children, and the care of their estate regarding of which no bond therefore, I direct him to lease or rent out my real property, and take care of or see my personal property, all for the use of my children in their maintenance and education until my youngest child becomes of age. Then I appoint said William M. Chason my executor

Mollie Chason

Subscribed in our presence and declared by Mollie Chason to be her last will and testament, and we at her request in her presence and in the presence of each other attest the same.
