I, Dominique Dusenbury, of Chichester Avenue, Richmond Hill, New York, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this my last will and testament, as follows:

First I direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid as soon as convenient.

Second, I give, devise and bequeath to my wife, Marie J. Dusenbury, all my right, title and interest in and to all the real estate situated in the State of North Carolina in which I own any share or interest, it being understood that she is to have the income of said real estate during her life time, and at her death my interest in said real estate is to go to my sister, Lizzie Teresa Dusenbury and to my brother, Thomas Dusenbury, share and share alike.

Third, all the rest, residue and remainders of my estate, both real and personal of which I do devise or to which I may be entitled, I hereby give, devise and bequeath to my wife for her life time and at her death the same shall go share and share alike to my brother and sister.

I hereby appoint my wife, Marie F. Dusembury, executrix of this my last Will and Testament.

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this eighth day of November, 1907.

Dominique Dusembury (L.S.)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the testator in our presence, as and for his last Will and Testament, and we at his request and in his presence, and in the presence of each other, have hereunto signed our names as witnesses.
