

And hereupon it is considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper-writing and every part thereof is the last will and testament of H. H. Davis, deceased, and it is ordered that the same, with the foregoing examination and this certificate, be recorded and filed.

This 8th day of December, 1908.

C. A. Tinslow, Clerk of the Superior Court of Washington County.

North Carolina,
Washington County, }
In the name of God, Amen:

I Amelia Everett, being of sound mind and memory but knowing the uncertainty of human affairs, do make and declare this my last will and testament.

Item First: After reserving my mother Rose Everett's life estate in the hereinafter mentioned land, I give and devise to my brother Addison Everett and his daughter Daisy J. Everett all of that tract of land known as the Osgins place in the town of Plymouth adjoining lands of Beasley heirs & others & containing one acre more or less, to them & their heirs in fee simple excepting (50) fifty per cent by (200) two hundred feet adjoining Sam Pettiford's lot and the Beasley land, which I give to my brother Benjamin Everett.

Item Second: I give and devise to my brother Addison Everett, that lot of land situated on 3rd Street near the M. E. Church to sell or do with as he chooses, said land given me in will by Chas. Gilliam.

Item Third: I give and bequeath all of my personal property of every kind and description now in the two rooms in my mother's house and any where else unto Rosana Everett & Daisy J. Everett to be equally divided between them.

Item Fourth: I give to my undutiful son, Harry Wheelock, the sum of ten dollars to be paid by my executor.

I hereby appoint and constitute my brother, Addison Everett, a executor to this my last will and testament.
