

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Frederick Spruill deceased is exhibited for probate by E. W. Spruill, of the legals herein named, who is thereupon sworn by the oath and examination of Richard Jarkinton that C. J. Lewis & James Jarkinton the subscribing witnesses thereof be dead and and it is further proven by the oath and examination of the said Richard Jarkinton that he is well acquainted with the hand writing of C. J. Lewis and James Jarkinton having often seen them write, and that the names of the said C. J. Lewis and James Jarkinton subscribed as witnesses to the said will is in the hand writing of the said C. J. Lewis & James Jarkinton, It is therefore considered by the Court that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the last will and testament of the said Frederick Spruill and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed
