

North Carolina, Washington County.
The foregoing & annexed will of Isolind Norman died, was this day proven by Notary Public, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, who testified that said testatrix signed said will in his presence & declared the same to be her last will & testament, & was at the time of signing sound mind & memory & by the testimony of Mandie L. Owens, who swears that she is well acquainted with the hand writing of Isolind Norman, the testatrix & of Anna Skidderup, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, who is a non resident of this State & that the signature of Isolind Norman, testatrix, & of said Anna Skidderup, said subscribing witness, is in their own proper hand writing. Her knowledge of her hand writing is due to the fact that she has often seen her write.

The said will is therefore declared to be duly proven & the same, with the certificate, & the prop as taken, recorded in my office.

C. W. Tinsbury, C. S. C.

(11)

In the name of God, amen, I, Martha F.
Hodges, of the County of Washington and State of North Carolina, being of sound of body & of sound mind, memory & understanding, praise be God for the same, do make this my last will and testament, in manner and form following:

Item, 1st, I give, devise and bequeath, unto my beloved daughter, Susan L. Blount, my heirs assigns forever, One half of my land on which I now live, beginning at a ditch on the East of what is known as the house field, thence due North from North end of said ditch to Albemarle Sound, thence down South end of said ditch running due South to the line between J. R. Tinsbury & myself, thence along said line to H. R. Chesser's line, along H. R. Chesser's line to a Cypress on Albemarle Sound it being a corner tree, between the said H. R. Chesser & myself, thence along the water's edge of the Sound to the line which runs from North end of the ditch above mentioned, One bed-chad & bed, One wash-stand, one blue wash-bowl & pitcher, to have and to her and her heirs upon simple forever.

I, Martha F. Hodges, do hereby certify that the due execution of the foregoing will of Martha F. Hodges was this day proven by the Judge and examination of H. R. Chesser and L. H. Chesser, the subscribing witnesses, and admitted to probate this 16th day of April 1907,

2nd Item, I give, devise and bequeath, unto my beloved son Wilson B. Hodges, his heirs and assigns forever, One half of the tract of land on which I now live, beginning on Albemarle Sound in Susan L. Blount's line it being the dividing line between her & H. B. Hodges, thence along said sound my line running the center of Chapel Drapes, and following its various courses to S. L.
Blount's line to first beginning, One bed-chad, One folding table with claws, one bureau with looking glass, One wash-stand, One gray horse, Four big silver spoons, Eight small silver spoons, which I am now using, to have and to hold unto him and his heirs in per simple forever.

In witness, I the said Martha F. Hodges, have hereunto set my hand and seal this 20 day of April 1898.

Martha F. Hodges, Seal

Signed, sealed, published and declared, by the said Martha F. Hodges, to be her last will and testament in the presence of us who at her request and in her presence do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto,

H. R. Chesser.

L. H. Chesser,

Whereas, I, Martha F. Hodges having made my last will & testament in writing, bearing date on the 20 day of April 1898, and thereby made sundry devises and bequests according to the then existing circumstances of my estate, but which circumstances having been materially changed, I do, by this, my writing, which I hereby declare to be a codicil to my said will, to be taken & construed as part thereof will and direct, that in case my daughter S.
L. Blount shall die without an heir, then & in such case my son H. B. Hodges, shall be the sole owner absolutely & in fee of all of the land bequeathed her as described in my will.

North Carolina, Washington County, I, C. W. Tinsbury, do hereby certify that the due execution of the foregoing will
of Martha F. Hodges was this day proven by the Judge and examination of H. R. Chesser and
L. H. Chesser, the subscribing witnesses, and admitted to probate this 16th day of April 1907,

C. W. Tinsbury, C. S. C.

I give and bequeath to my sister May E. Dillon, all the interest in lands I inherited from estate of my father James W. Nelson to be used to pay off the mortgage on my home known as the James W. Nelson house, which I inherited from my mother Ann B. Nelson. I give my home, known as James W. Nelson house, to my sister May E. Dillon, to be held in trust for benefit of my brother H. H. Nelson, to provide for him during his life, and after his death to May E. Dillon in fee simple. If there is any balance left from the un sold lands which we hold in common after paying off the mortgage on my home which I leave in trust to her for benefit of H. H. Nelson, I give to my sister May E. Dillon. The five hundred acres of swamp land that I bought from J. J. Rea, I leave in trust to May E. Dillon, from which to give to my aunt Johanna Bogart, one thousand ($1000) dollars, to Maggie H. Cobb two hundred & fifty ($250) dollars, to Charlotte Hutton, two hundred ($200) dollars, to Sarah Ann Nichols, fifty ($50⁰⁰) dollars, to Mr. J. M. Mackins two hundred dollars ($200), to Blance Barden Russell Twenty-Five ($25.⁰⁰) dollars, and if any residue of money is left from sale of this Five hundred acres of land, I want May E. Dillon to use it for benefit of my brother H. H. Nelson. I want my sister May E. Dillon to pay from sale of this Five hundred acres of land all my debts first, and then to Johanna Bogart one thousand dollars before the other bequests are given off. If Johanna Bogart shall leave any of the bequest of one thousand dollars left at time of her death, I want her to give it to Charlotte Hutton's grand daughter, Fannie Nelson Todd. To Johanna Bogart I give four ^{compl} sets of bed room furniture, including matresses, counterpanes, sheets, pillow cases, blankets with two carpets, the red wood rocker now in possession of Ann B. White, Norfolk, Va. during her life, and after her death to Fannie Nelson Todd. To Eddie Dillon I give my old book case, to Fannie Hutton my old China tea set and all my China and all the jewelry, my cousin Sally Cherry.

I give my grand mother's table, my mother's mother's and the residue of my estate to May Dillon in fee simple.

Francis O. Nelson

Witness:

Mary E. Moore.
Bettie W. Moore.

May 11, 1907.

Codicil, I want my cassette panel for first of all & the thirty dollars she & I owed C. H. Snell, Sister Mary is to have full charge of my estate, this

F. O. Nelson.

State - of North Carolina, }
Washington County, }
In the Superior Court, A paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Francis O. Nelson, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Mary E. Dillon, daughter therein mentioned, and she did execute the same by the said Francis O. Nelson by the oath and examination of Mary E. Moore & Bettie W. Moore, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself respectively and sayeth that she is a subscribing witness to the paper-willing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Francis O. Nelson, that the said Francis O. Nelson is the person of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper-willing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the Eleventh day of May, 1907.

And the deponent further saith, that the said Francis O. Nelson, the testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing his name, as aforesaid declare the said paper-willing so subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator, And this deponent further saith, that at the time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponents subscribing his name